

AFFIDAVIT OF RICHARD HELMS

STATE OF VIRGINIA)
: ss.
COUNTY OF FAIRFAX)

RICHARD HELMS, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the Deputy Director for Plans of the Central Intelligence Agency, and that based on his personal knowledge of the affairs of the Central Intelligence Agency and on detailed inquiries of those officers and employees within his supervision who would have knowledge about any photographs furnished by that Agency to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, he certifies that:

he has personally examined the copies of the photographs affixed to the affidavits of Special Agent Bardwell D. Odum and Inspector James R. Malley;

in his judgment these are partial copies of a photograph furnished by the Central Intelligence Agency to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on November 22, 1963, and they are referred to as partial only because Odum and Malley personally trimmed or cropped their copies of the photograph;

in his judgment the figure portrayed in the copies attached to the two affidavits is the same as that in the original photograph; and the original photograph of the figure appearing in the copies was taken in Mexico City on October 4, 1963.
