DL 100-10481

At Fort Worth, Texas

On August 14, 1962, ROBERT L. OSWALD, 7313 Davenport Street, advised his brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and family had moved to an apartment on Mercedes Street, house number unknown to ROBERT; however, he volunteered this particular street is only about two blocks in length, and his brother could easily be located. MR. OSWALD also advised his brother, LEE, had recently gone to work as a machinist for a company located in White Settlement Village, but MR. OSWALD stated he did not have the name or address of this concern.

Inquiries conducted in the vicinity of the 2700 block of Mercedes Street on August 15, 1962, revealed LEE HARVEY OSWALD was residing at 2703 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth.

Date August 20, 1962

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, reinterviewed near his residence, 2703 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth, Texas, stated he has resided at this address since about the middle of July, 1962 with his wife, MARINA, and daughter, JUNE LEE OSWALD. He stated he has been employed as machinist for LESLIE'S MACHINE SHOP, 209-S North Vacek (White Settlement Village), Fort Worth, since about July 15, 1962.

OSWALD stated contact had been made by letter with the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C., to advise the Embassy of his wife's current address, saying this is something that is required by Soviet law. He stated she would continue to make reports periodically to the Soviet Embassy in instances where they moved to another address.

OSWALD advised the matter of his having been given an undesirable discharge on August 17, 1960, from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve by reason of unfitness has not been reviewed, and, he did not know when the matter would be heard.

OSWALD volunteered he had never enjoyed his service in the U. S. Marine Corps. He also stated he had not enjoyed his trip to the Soviet Union any more than he had enjoyed his service in the U. S. Marine Corps.

OSWALD stated positively no individual had made any contact with him since his arrival in Fort Worth in the interest of the Soviet Union.

OSWALD denied he had on October 31, 1963, or any other time, requested his U. S. citizenship be revoked. He denied he ever took any steps to apply for Soviet citizenship. He advised he never at any time affirmed allegiance to the Soviet Union, or indicated a willingness to do so.

OSWALD advised when he first arrived in the Soviet Union, and also when he started to leave, he was interviewed by representatives of the MVD, which he characterized as being the secret police, who, for the most part handle criminal matters among the population generally. He stated their operation is widespread. He denied he ever made any "deals" with the MVD, and stated he was never asked to undertake anything or do anything for them.

On 8/16/62 at Fort Worth, Texas File # EL 100-10461
 by SAs ARNOLD J. BROWN and JOHN W. FAIR Date dictated 8/22/62

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He advised no representative of the Soviet Union, the KGB, or any intelligence agent of the Soviet Union ever attempted to recruit him in any way. He stated no one in the Soviet Union ever attempted to elicit any secret information concerning the United States or its defense from him.

OSWALD denied he ever told the Soviets at any time he would make available to them information concerning his U. S. Marine Corps speciality.

OSWALD advised in about May 19, 1962, he became fearful some reprisals might be taken against him for having made the trip to the Soviet Union. He stated he then inquired of the American Embassy in Moscow, Russia, as to the possible legal complications. He stated the Embassy assured him they were aware of no evidence which would warrant prosecution against him, should he return to the United States. In this connection, OSWALD stated the American Embassy failed to persuade him to return to the United States alone, and without his wife, MARIA. He told the Embassy he could not do that.

The Embassy reportedly pointed out to OSWALD it would be a difficult matter to obtain a passport for OSWALD's wife, who was a Russian. The Embassy tried to influence him to come back alone, find a job, get established, and later send for his wife. OSWALD stated he refused to follow this course. He told the American Embassy he feared he would never see his wife again if he left her in Russia. OSWALD stated he finally furnished a "document of support" in the interest of his wife and the passport was eventually granted. OSWALD stated he was his wife's sponsor, and only sponsor.

OSWALD stated he has had no contact with his half brother, JOHN EDWARD WEE, a Staff Sergeant, in the USAF, and, so far as he knows, WEE is still stationed in Japan.

OSWALD stated he might have to return to the Soviet Union in about five years in order to take his wife back home to see her relatives. He stated no definite plans have been formulated to this end.

OSWALD still declined to answer questions as to why he went to the Soviet Union in the first instance. He stated he considers it "nobody's business" why he wanted to go the Soviet Union. OSWALD finally stated he went over to Russia for his "own personal reasons." He said it was a "personal matter" to him. He said "I went, and I came back." He also said "it was something that I did."

OSWALD was asked to explain a statement which he was quoted in the press as having made to his mother in a letter to the effect his and his mother's (and brother's) values had been different. OSWALD stated he had written something to that effect as he prepared to leave for Russia or while on the way. OSWALD admitted he might have referred to a difference in political ideologies, however, he declined to go into further detail.

In this connection, OSWALD criticized the newspaper reports which were issued concerning his trip to Russia. He stated most of the newspaper stories were "only about ten per cent correct."

OSWALD stated he did not take his birth certificate to Russia. He thinks it is packed in a trunk at his mother's home.

OSWALD declined to furnish the names of his wife's relatives because they are on file in the American Embassy in Moscow, Russia, and he thinks it "safer for their welfare to let the names remain on file there."

During the entire interview, OSWALD appeared to down-grade the possibility the Soviet intelligence service might at any time attempt to use him or obtain any information through him. He agreed to contact the FBI if at any time any individual made any contact of any nature under suspicious circumstances with him. OSWALD stated his employer has no government contracts, and is not engaged in any kind of sensitive industry or manufacturing. He stated he could see no reason why the Soviets would desire to contact him; however, he promised his cooperation in reporting to FBI any information coming to his attention.

was available to them information about his Marine Corps speciality when he became a Soviet citizen.

On June 3, 1952, a review of the files of the Passport Office of the U. S. Department of State (DPS), revealed that by a personal letter dated January 22, 1951, addressed to the Secretary of the Navy, subject advised he was preparing to return to the United States of America and wished to have rectified the "gross injustice" done to him by the U. S. Marine Corps (USMC) in giving to subject a "dishonorable discharge." Subject also stated in his letter he had received an honorable discharge after three years service on September 11, 1948. In his letter, subject asserted he was still a citizen and alleged he had gone to the Soviet Union in exile only for a "short time."

The files of the Passport Office further revealed that subject had been released under honorable conditions to inactive duty in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve on September 11, 1948, with obligated reserve service until December 31, 1952. On August 17, 1950, subject was given an honorable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve by reason of utilization.

A review of the files of the Passport Office also revealed a 1948 memorandum dated May 4, 1948, stating that on the basis of evidence, subject had not expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States.

A review of the files of the Passport Office of the DPS, Washington, D. C., on August 13, 1951, concerning subject revealed the following information:

By letter dated May 1951 to the American Embassy, Moscow, USSR, subject advised he had no intention of returning to the United States unless he was given a guarantee that he would not be prosecuted for any act committed "in this case." Subject also indicated he had married a Russian girl born in Leningrad, Russia, and wanted to bring her to the United States with him.

This review of the files of the Passport Office also revealed that on July 3, 1951, subject appeared at the American Embassy in Moscow at which time he stated he was employed in the State Russian Radio and Television Factory, Moscow, U.S.S.R., as a maintenance worker, in the state factory. Subject stated he took no oath of allegiance of any kind to the Soviet Union nor was he required to sign any papers in connection with his employment. He gave his earnings to his wife a month. Subject also stated he was married on April 1, 1951, to MARINA NIKOLAYEVNA ZHUKOVA, a Russian technician. Subject stated his intention to apply for an entry visa immediately upon his return to Moscow. He was to desired to bring his wife with him to the United States.

This review of the files of the Passport Office also revealed that on July 18, 1931, subject enclosed an "Application for Renewal of Passport," at the American Embassy in Moscow. His residence at that time was 1932, Nigara Malinina St., Apartment 21, Moscow. This renewal application indicated that subject was issued U. S. Passport No. 1730172 on September 19, 1929, at Washington, D. C. Subject's renewal application was referred to the State Department for consideration and decision.

This review of the files of the Passport Office also reflected that by memorandum dated August 18, 1931, the State Department had authorized the American Embassy in Moscow to renew subject's passport for direct travel to the United States.

A review of the files of the Passport Office at the State, Washington, D. C., on January 29, 1932, revealed the following information:

In a letter of July 15, 1931, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject advised he was continuing his efforts to obtain an exit visa for his wife and for himself.

By letter dated August 1931, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject furnished a copy of his marriage certificate and a copy of his wife's birth certificate.

By letter dated August 2, 1931, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject inquired if it would be possible for him to travel through Poland by train after leaving Moscow. Subject pointed out he could not afford to fly from Moscow to New York City. He also stated he believed he could catch a military flight to the United States from Berlin, Germany.

By letter dated October 4, 1931, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject asked the Embassy to assist him in obtaining exit visas from the Soviet authorities.

The U. S. Department of State Operations' memorandum dated January 10, 1932, at the American Embassy in Moscow, pointed out that a letter dated January 5, 1932, was received from subject stating he expected to receive an exit visa within a few days. This memorandum also pointed out that the American Embassy in Moscow had been formally notified by the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the issuance of a foreign passport and an exit visa to subject.

On September 18, 1961, ROBERT LEO OSWALD, the subject's brother at 7013 Havenport Street, Fort Worth, who is a sales coordinator, Marketing Department of Acme Brick Company, Fort Worth, stated he had received a letter dated September 19, 1961, from subject who mentioned that he was working in an "electrical shop" at Kirov, Russia. Mr. OSWALD advised that subject had stated in this letter he owned a shot gun and occasionally went hunting. Mr. OSWALD also advised that subject had married a Russian girl, an orphan, first name MIRKA, age 18, or 19. Subject had told his brother that she was a nurse. This girl prior to her marriage to subject resided with an uncle and aunt. Mr. OSWALD stated that from description of subject's wife furnished by subject she seems to be a very intelligent and attractive girl. According to Mr. OSWALD, subject's wife desired to come to the United States with subject. Mr. OSWALD also stated that subject's letter was not too optimistic as to his chances of getting to return to the United States at an early date. Mr. OSWALD indicated his belief that the Russians were "holding up" subject's return to the United States. Mr. OSWALD also advised that subject had been "critical of the Russians" in his letters and he, Mr. OSWALD, was surprised that the Russians would allow subject to make such criticisms.

On October 13, 1961, Mrs. MARGUERITE S. OSWALD, 1803 Maple Street, Apartment No. 3, Vernon, Texas, advised that about two months previously she had received from her son, the subject, a letter in which he advised that he and his wife had been in Moscow to contact the American Embassy in order to obtain renewal of his passport and obtain permission to return to the United States. In this letter subject indicated that the prospects were good for him to be allowed to return to the United States but he did not know whether his wife would be able to return with him. Subject indicated he would not return unless she were allowed to accompany him. Mrs. OSWALD advised she had not received a letter from subject for a period of about six weeks and had begun to think he might be on his way home even though she had written her for sure he was going to return tomorrow and he indicated the date on which he might arrive. Mrs. OSWALD also advised that she had received another letter about a week before October 13, 1961, from her son, the subject, who made no reference to his trip to Moscow or to his returning home. In this letter subject stated he was O.K. Mrs. OSWALD stated she had no information as to whether or not subject and his wife were going to be allowed to return to the United States. She has no idea when they might be permitted to leave the Soviet Union.

By letter dated October 19, 1961, L. J. MARY, Officer in Charge, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 1102 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that subject had applied

SA 100-10451

No. 4 Kalinin Street, Minsk, Russia (File No. A12608645), had filed a petition for a non-quota immigrant visa in behalf of his wife, MARINA N. S. OSWALD, a native and citizen of Russia. According to Mr. BLACK, subject had listed his occupation as electrical technician and his former address as 7313 Ravensport, Fort Worth, Texas.

On February 26, 1962, LARRY KUPINS, Foreign Adjudications Division, Passport Office, USSR, advised that subject, by a letter dated January 16, 1962, to the American Embassy in Moscow had advised he would not consider returning to the United States alone for any reason as it appeared to him that his passport could be confiscated upon his return. Subject also forwarded to the American Embassy an affidavit for support of his wife.

On March 27, 1962, Mrs. FRANCES VAN COYT, Office of Special Consular Services, USSR, advised that subject had filed an application for a repatriation loan at the American Embassy in Moscow on February 26, 1962. Subject indicated his desire to return to the United States with his alien wife and a one-month old child. Subject had $200.00 of his own money. The USSR approved a loan about March 1, 1962, for subject in the amount of $500 for minimum accommodations. Mrs. VAN COYT also advised that subject's wife, MARINA NIKOLAYEVNA OSWALD, was having difficulty obtaining an American visa.

On March 29, 1962, WILLIAM LAMOTT, Office of Security, USSR, advised his files reflected information to the effect that First Sergeant JOHN EDWARD PIC, AF 12312309, had on February 12 and 13, 1962, reported receipt of a letter from his half-brother, ROBERT L. OSWALD, 7313 Ravensport, Fort Worth, Texas, concerning subject of this case. Sergeant PIC reported subject was expected to return to the United States in the Spring of 1962 and subject could be traveling with his Russian wife who had recently acquired a visa to enter the United States. Sergeant PIC stated he was unable to determine from ROBERT OSWALD's letter whether the purpose of subject's travel to the United States was to re-establish a permanent residence or to visit on a temporary basis. Sergeant PIC stated that he, PIC, is scheduled to return to the United States in July of 1962 but he does not know the location of his next assignment. Sergeant PIC also advised that subject might possibly visit him at his next duty station and that in this connection, Sgt. PIC would notify his superiors at his station concerning the visit. Sergeant PIC also advised that his cousin, LINDA LAMOTT, U. S. citizen, formerly employed in Japan as a school teacher in 1952, has since departed Japan. Sergeant PIC did not know the current address of LAMOTT, or whether she had been corresponding with the subject.

A review conducted on June 5, 1962, of the files of the Special Consular Services, USNS, revealed that by a telegram dated March 7, 1962, the USNS had authorized the American Embassy in Moscow to furnish a repatriation loan to subject to cover the cost of his passage to New York only.

On May 4, 1962, R. Mac. TOMPKINS, Brigadier General, U. S. Marine Corps, advised that subject wrote the following letter dated March 22, 1962:

"LIEK R. OSWALD

A review on May 5, 1962, of the files of the Security Office, NEWS, revealed that the Office of Security had advised the Director of Naval Intelligence, Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C., that subject had not ac-patriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States.

On May 18, 1962, Mrs. ROBERT L. OSWALD, subject's sister-in-law, 7313 Davengore, Fort Worth, advised she had received a postal card from subject on about May 16, 1962, which had been dated April 10, 1962. On this card, subject stated he had nothing to report concerning his move to the United States; that they were waiting for the Embassy to finish its paper work which had been "very slow". Mrs. OSWALD stated she did not know when subject and his family would arrive in Fort Worth. She stated that subject had first set the date for his arrival as May, 1962, but that he had changed it to June, 1962. Mrs. OSWALD advised that her husband had written to subject and invited him to come to Fort Worth. Subject replied to this invitation that he did not know where they would be going. Mrs. OSWALD stated that she got the impression from subject's letters and cards that subject desired to return permanently to the United States. Mrs. OSWALD promised to advise the local FBI office immediately upon subject's arrival at Fort Worth.

On June 4, 1962, Mr. FRANCIS VAN COTT, Office of Special Consular Services, USAID, advised that by a telegram dated May 31, 1962, the U. S. Embassy in Moscow had informed the Department of State that subject, his wife and child planned to depart Moscow, Russia, on June 1, 1962, for Rotterdam, Holland, where they would board "Blasden" on June 4, 1962. The SS "Blasden" was scheduled to arrive in New York, New York, June 6, 1962. The Department of State had notified subject's mother by letter relative to this schedule.

In the "Fort Worth Star Telegram," evening edition, a daily newspaper, Fort Worth, Texas, on June 2, 1962, there appeared a photograph of subject and a headline, "Ex-Marine Reported on Way Back from Russia." This article stated that subject, a former U. S. Marine, who deserted his American citizenship to become a Russian, was reported June 2, 1962, to be en route home. This article went on to state that subject had turned in his American passport October 21, 1960, at the Embassy in Moscow, saying he would "never return to the United States for any reason." This article further quoted subject as having later told American newspaper men that leaving the United States was like getting out of prison." This article also contained the following information: It quoted subject's sister-in-law, Mrs. E. L. OSWALD, 7022 Alwegport, as saying her husband had received frequent letters from his brother indicating he was anxious to return to this country. She said she and members of the family had not learned that subject was en route home. This article stated that subject's mother, Mrs. MARSHALLE OSWALD, could not be reached for comment.

This article also stated that subject's appearance at the American Embassy in Moscow came as a shock to his mother and brother-in-law who had left Fort Worth following his discharge from the Marine, telling his family he was going to New Orleans in search of a job.

In the "Fort Worth Press," a daily newspaper, Fort Worth, Texas, issue of June 6, 1963, carried a front-page story to the effect that subject, a former Fort Worth Marine, who once vowed he would "never return to the United States for any reason," was on his way home from Russia.

This article stated further that United Press International had reported on June 3, 1963, that subject, along with his Russian wife and child had left the Soviet Union within the past few days and was en route to the United States.

This article further stated that subject's brother, R. L. GOWDIE, 7313 Inwoodway, Fort Worth, told the press that he and his mother, Mrs. MARGARET GOWDIE, have been hearing from subject regularly. R. L. GOWDIE was quoted as saying that subject had wanted to come back for sometime but that he had not heard that subject had left Russia.

This article further stated that subject had arrived in Moscow in November, 1959, two months after his release from active duty in the Marine Corps; that subject had been retained Soviet citizenship at the time but that he was allowed to live in Russia as a "resident alien." Subject was reported to have been a student while in the Soviet Union, possibly at Leningrad.

This article went on to say that subject was never granted Russian citizenship and that he is believed to have retained his American citizenship. This article stated that several days after subject arrived in Moscow in 1959, his mother called him long distance and at that time subject refused to talk to her. She did not hear from him again until a letter came January 8, 1963. According to this article, when subject first went to Russia he told newsmen he was a worker and wanted to live in a workers country.

This article further quoted that subject said "I would not want to live in the United States and be either a worker exploited by capitalists or a capitalist exploiting workers or become unemployed." This article also quoted subject as having said "I could not be happy living under capitalism."

This article went on to quote subject as saying his own personal experiences in civil and military life had shown him the correctness of communist theories.

This article also quoted subject as having said he began studying communism when his family was living in New Orleans, Louisiana; that he had discovered a book in the library titled "The Capital," by KARL MARX. This article also quoted subject as having stated that he had joined the Marine Corps at age 17 because he felt he could not get a job and because he wanted to relieve the financial burden of the family. This article also quoted subject as having said that when he left America it was like "getting out of prison." This article concluded by saying that when subject had visited his family shortly after his release from the Marine Corps he had talked optimistically about the future and that none of his plans had included going to college, writing a book or joining GIBSON'S Cuban Army.

On June 20, 1962, ALBERT EDWARDS, Assistant Manager, Cable-Consent Department, Holland-America Line, 25 Broadway, New York, New York, advised that the records of Holland-America Line reflected that subject, his wife and child arrived in the United States on June 13, 1962, aboard the SS Mexicana at Hoboken, New Jersey. Subject, his wife and child traveled tourist class and were destined to 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Texas.

On June 22, 1962, the records of Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 30 West Broadway, New York, New York, revealed that subject, his wife and child, INS file No. 11000708, arrived in the United States aboard the SS Mexicana on June 13, 1962. This file reflected that subject had U. S. Passport No. 1700000, that his daughter, JUNE, born February 15, 1940, ne NINCH, 11000, had the same passport and that subject's wife, YEKATERINA NIKOLAYEVNA GOROD, had Russian Passport No. 34700. Subject was admitted as a U. S. citizen with a renewed U. S. Passport. YEKATERINA NIKOLAYEVNA GOROD was admitted with an H-1 Immigrant Visa as the spouse of a U. S. citizen. This H-1 Immigrant Visa was issued at Hoboken on May 24, 1962.

On June 23, 1962, FREDERICK J. WINTERBORN, Inspector, INS, advised he had interviewed subject upon the latter's arrival in the United States and that subject had said that he was employed as a mechanic in Russia; that he had threatened to renounce his U. S. citizenship but never carried through with the threat, never voted in Russia and held no position in the Russian Government.

On June 25, 1962, Srs. ROBERT L. OSWALD, anti-riot-law lieutenant, 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, stated the subject, his wife and child had arrived in Fort Worth on June 14, 1962, and that they were currently residing at 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Tex. OSWALD stated she had not notified the local FBI office of subject's arrival in Fort Worth for the reason that the family had been harassed by newspaper reporters and that for that reason subject did not desire to leave his residence.

He stated that he was in contact with the Soviets in order to obtain permission to return to the United States. He stated that the Soviets made it very difficult for him to obtain permission for his wife to leave Russia, and that the process of obtaining permission for her to leave was a long, difficult course requiring much paper work. He stated that no attempt was made by the Soviets at any time to "brainwash" him. OSWALD stated that he never at any time gave the Soviets any information which would be used in a detrimental way against the United States. He stated that the Soviets never sought any such information from him. OSWALD denied that he at any time while in Russia had offered to reveal to the Soviets any information he had acquired as a radar operator in the U. S. Marines.

OSWALD stated that the passport also requires her to make reports as to her whereabouts periodically. OSWALD stated that he plans to contact the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C., within a few days for the purpose of notifying the Soviet Embassy of his wife's current address.

make available to them information about his Marine Corps speciality when he became a Soviet citizen.

On June 5, 1962, a review of the files of the Passport Office of the U. S. Department of State (USDS), revealed that by a personal letter dated January 30, 1961, addressed to the Secretary of the Navy, subject advised he was preparing to return to the United States of America and wished to have rectified the "gross injustice" done to him by the U. S. Marine Corps (USMC) in giving to subject a "belated dishonorable discharge." Subject also stated in his letter he had received an honorable discharge after three years service on September 11, 1959. In his letter, subject asserted he was still a citizen and alleged he had gone to the Soviet Union to reside only for a "short time."

The files of the Passport Office further revealed that subject had been released under honorable conditions to inactive duty in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve on September 11, 1959, with obligated reserve service until December 8, 1962. On August 17, 1960, subject was given an undesirable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve by reason of unfitness.

✓ This review of the files of the Passport Office also revealed a USDS memorandum dated May 4, 1962, stating that on the basis of evidence, subject had not expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States.

A review of the files of the Passport Office of the USDS, Washington, D. C., on August 22, 1961, concerning subject revealed the following information:

By letter dated May 1961 to the American Embassy, Moscow, USSR, subject advised he had no intention of returning to the United States unless he were given a guarantee that he would not be prosecuted for any act pertaining "to this case." Subject also indicated he had married a Russian girl born in Leningrad, Russia, and wanted to bring her to the United States with him.

This review of the files of the Passport Office also revealed that on July 8, 1961, subject appeared at the American Embassy in Moscow at which time he stated he was employed in the Echo Russian Radio and Television Factory, Minsk, Russia, as a metal worker, in the research shop. Subject stated he took no oath of allegiance of any kind to the Soviet Union nor was he required to sign any paper in connection with his employment. He gave his earnings as 90 rubles a month. Subject also stated he was married on April 30, 1961, to MARIAN NIKOLAEVNA PUSAKOVA, a dental technician. Subject stated his intention to apply for an exit visa immediately upon his return to Minsk. He said he desired to bring his wife with him to the United States.

This review of the files of the Passport Office also revealed that on July 10, 1961, subject executed an "Application for Renewal of Passport," at the American Embassy in Moscow. His residence at that time was USSR, Ulipsa Kalinina 4, Apartment 24, Minsk. This renewal application indicated that subject was issued U. S. Passport No. 1733242 on September 10, 1959, at Washington, D. C. Subject's renewal application was referred to the State Department for consideration and decision.

This review of the files of the Passport Office also reflected that by memorandum dated August 13, 1961, the State Department had authorized the American Embassy in Moscow to renew subject's passport for direct travel to the United States.

A review of the files of the Passport Office on the USDS, Washington, D. C., on January 29, 1962, revealed the following information:

In a letter of July 15, 1961, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject advised he was continuing his efforts to obtain an exit visa for his wife and for himself.

By letter dated "August 1961," to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject furnished a copy of his marriage certificate and a copy of his wife's birth certificate.

By letter dated August 8, 1961, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject inquired if it would be permissible for him to travel through Poland by train after leaving Minsk. Subject pointed out he could not afford to fly from Moscow to New York City. He added he believed he could catch a military flight to the United States from Berlin, Germany.

By letter dated October 4, 1961, to the American Embassy in Moscow, subject asked the Embassy to assist him in obtaining exit visas from the Soviet authorities.

U. S. Department of State Operation's memorandum dated January 16, 1962, at the American Embassy in Moscow, pointed out that a letter dated January 5, 1962, was received from subject stating he expected to receive an exit visa within 45 days. This memorandum also pointed out that the American Embassy in Moscow had been formally notified by the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the issuance of a foreign passport and an exit visa to subject's wife.

On September 18, 1961, ROBERT LEE OSWALD, the subject's brother at 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, who is a sales coordinator, Marketing Department of Acme Erick Company, Fort Worth, stated he had received a letter dated September 10, 1961, from subject who mentioned that he was working in an "electrical shop" at Minsk, Russia. Mr. OSWALD advised that subject had stated in this letter he owned a shot gun and occasionally went hunting. Mr. OSWALD also advised that subject had married a Russian girl, an orphan, first name MARINA, age 18, or 19. Subject had told his brother that she was a nurse. This girl prior to her marriage to subject resided with an uncle and aunt. Mr. OSWALD stated that from description of subject's wife furnished by subject she seems to be a very intelligent and attractive girl. According to Mr. OSWALD, subject's wife desired to come to the United States with subject. Mr. OSWALD also stated that subject's letter was not too optimistic as to his chances of getting to return to the United States at an early date. Mr. OSWALD indicated his belief that the Russians were "holding up" subject's return to the United States. Mr. OSWALD also advised that subject has been "critical of the Russians" in his letters and he, Mr. OSWALD, was surprised that the Russians would allow subject to make such criticisms.

On October 13, 1961, Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, 1808 Eagle Street, Apartment No. 3, Vernon, Texas, advised that about two months previously she had received from her son, the subject, a letter in which he advised that he and his wife had been to Moscow to contact the American Embassy in order to obtain renewal of his passport and obtain permission to return to the United States. In this letter subject indicated that the prospects were good for him to be allowed to return to the United States but he did not know whether his wife would be able to return with him. Subject indicated he would not return unless she were allowed to accompany him. Mrs. OSWALD advised she had not received a letter from subject for a period of about six weeks and had begun to think he might be on his way home even though he had not told her for sure he was going to return home or had he furnished the date on which he might arrive. Mrs. OSWALD also stated she had received another letter about a week before October 13, 1961, from her son, the subject, who made no reference whatever to his trip to Moscow or to his returning home. In this letter subject stated he was "Okey". Mrs. OSWALD stated she had no information as to whether or not subject and his wife were going to be allowed to return to the United States. She had no idea when they might be permitted to leave the Soviet Union.

By letter dated October 19, 1961, L. A. MACK, Officer in Charge, Immigration and Naturalization Service (I&NS), 1100 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that subject, of Apartment 24,

DL 100-10461

No. 4 Kalinin Street, Minsk, Russia (File No. A12530645), had filed a petition for a non-quota immigrant visa in behalf of his wife, MARINA N. P. OSWALD, a native and citizen of Russia. According to Mr. HACK, subject had listed his occupation as electrical technician and his former address as 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Texas.

On February 28, 1962, HENRY KUPIEC, Foreign Adjudications Division, Passport Office, USDS, advised that subject, by a letter dated January 16, 1962, to the American Embassy in Moscow had advised he would not consider returning to the United States alone for any reason as it appeared to him that his passport would be confiscated upon his return. Subject also forwarded to the American Embassy an affidavit for support of his wife.

On March 27, 1962, Mrs. FRANCES VAN COTT, Office of Special Consular Services, USDS, advised that subject had filed an application for a repatriation loan at the American Embassy in Moscow on February 24, 1962. Subject indicated his desire to return to the United States with his alien wife and a one-month old child. Subject had $200.00 of his own money. The USDS approved a loan about March 1, 1962, for subject in the amount of $500 for minimum accommodations. Mrs. VAN COTT also advised that subject's wife, MARINA NIKOLAEVNA PRUSKOVA, was having difficulty obtaining an American visa.

On March 29, 1962, WILLIAM ABBOTT, Office of Security, USDS, advised his files reflected information to the effect that Staff Sergeant JOHN EDWARD PIC, AF 11313239, had on February 12 and 16, 1962, reported receipt of a letter from his half-brother, ROBERT L. OSWALD, 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Texas, concerning subject of this case. Sergeant PIC reported subject was expected to return to the United States in the Spring of 1962 and subject would be traveling with his Russian wife who had recently acquired a visa to enter the United States. Sergeant PIC stated he was unable to determine from ROBERT OSWALD's letter whether the purpose of subject's travel to the United States was to re-establish a permanent residence or to visit on a temporary basis. Sergeant PIC advised that he, PIC, is scheduled to return to the United States in July of 1962 but he does not know the location of his next assignment. Sergeant PIC also advised that subject might possibly visit him at his next duty station and that if this occurred, Sgt. PIC would notify his superiors at his station concerning the visit. Sergeant PIC also advised that his cousin, MARILYN MURRETT, U. S. citizen, formerly employed in Japan as a school teacher in 1959, has since departed Japan. Sergeant PIC did not know the current address of MURRETT, or whether she had been corresponding with the subject.

A review conducted on June 5, 1962, of the files of the Special Consular Services, USDS, revealed that by a telegram dated March 7, 1962, the USDS had authorized the American Embassy in Moscow to furnish a repatriation loan to subject to cover the cost of his passage to New York only.

On May 4, 1962, R. McC. TOMPKINS, Brigadier General, U. S. Marine Corps, advised that subject wrote the following letter dated March 22, 1962:

"LEE H. OSWALD

March 22, 1962

"R. McC. TOMPKINS
Brigadier Gen., U.S.M.C.
Ass. Direct. of Personnel

"Dear Sirs:

"In reply to your notification of the granting of an Undischargeable discharge and your conveying of the process at which it was arrived.

"I would like to point out in direct opposition to your information that I have never taken steps to renounce my U. S. citizenship. Also that the United States State Department has no charges or complaints against me what/so ever.

"I refer you to the United States Embassy, Moscow, or the U. S. department of State Washington D. C., for the verification of this fact.

"Also, I was aware of the finding of the board of officers of 3 August 1960. I was notified by my mother, in December 1962.

"My request to the Secretary of the Navy, his referral to you and your letter to me, did not say anything about a Review, which is what I was trying to arrange.

"You mention 'reliable information' as the basis for the Undischargeable discharge. I have no doubt it was newspapers speculation which forward your 'reliable information'.

Reference is made to Foreign Service Dispatch Number 234 dated November 2, 1959, concerning subject's renunciation of his American citizenship at the United States Embassy, Moscow, Russia, on October 31, 1959.

It is noted that among other items, subject surrendered his United States passport number 1913512 to an American Embassy official. His last known residence as indicated in your dispatch was The Metropole Hotel, Moscow, where he was residing in a non-tourist status.

Your attention is directed to the report of Special Agent John W. Fain, Dallas, Texas, dated May 12, 1960, entitled "Funds Transmitted to Residents of Russia; Internal Security - R," a copy of which was furnished to the Department of State on May 24, 1960.

In that report you will note that subject's mother, Mrs. Margarita C. Oswald, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that she recently received a letter addressed to her son from the Albert Schweitzer College in Switzerland indicating that Leo Oswald was expected at the college on April 20, 1960. She stated subject had taken his birth certificate with him when he left home. She was apprehensive about his safety because three letters she had written him since January 22, 1960, have been returned to her undelivered.

Since there is a possibility that an importer is using Oswald's birth certificate, any current information the Department of State may have concerning subject will be appreciated.

SYNOPSIS

The information contained in this document will not be disclosed to foreign nationals or their representatives.

Investigation initiated upon direction of Director, OSI (IG) PACAF, APO 953, in an effort to establish security qualifications of SUBJECT; further, to resolve any possible sympathetic association he may have had with his half brother, who allegedly turned in his passport to American Embassy officials in Moscow, USSR, stating the intention of renouncing his U. S. citizenship. Review of files, this District Office, reflected that SUBJECT voluntarily appeared at Detachment 2, this District Office, and opined that his half brother contemplated renunciation of his citizenship because of being forced out of his chosen career (the U. S. Marine Corps) in order to take care of and support his mother; also, that he might have been influenced by the actions of two other Americans who recently renounced their citizenship and whose actions were widely publicized. SUBJECT related that he felt a moral obligation to attempt to dissuade his half brother from this action, but was reluctant to pursue the attempt unless with USAF sanction; further, should his half brother persist in his intent, he would be "legally dead" as far as SUBJECT is concerned. DETAILS:

1. This investigation was initiated by direction of the Director, OSI (IG) PACAF, APO 953, by letter, file 31-63, dated 29 December 1959, in an effort to establish the security qualifications of JOHN EDWARD PIC, SSgt, AF 11313239, USAF Hospital Tachikawa, APO 323; further, to resolve any possible sympathetic association he may have had with his half brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who allegedly turned in his passport to American Embassy officials in Moscow, USSR, stating the intention of renouncing his U. S. citizenship.

AT TACHIKAWA AIR BASE, TACHIKAWA, HONSHU, JAPAN

2. On 15 January 1960, File 31-30, this District Office, was reviewed and the following information relative to JOHN EDWARD PIC, SSgt, AF 11313239, USAF Hospital Tachikawa, APO 323, was extracted therefrom:

On 4 November 1959, PIC voluntarily appeared at Detachment 2 of this District Office and was interviewed by Special Agent SHEGEO R. OKUMA and the writer. He related that on Sunday night, 1 November 1959, he heard a radio broadcast relative to his half brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who had allegedly turned in his passport to American Embassy officials in Moscow, USSR, stating the intention of renouncing his U. S. citizenship. PIC stated that he had been to the chaplain, Tachikawa Air Base, who suggested that he report to this office. PIC stated that OSWALD is his half brother, his mother having been married several times. He identified his family as follows:

Father: EDWARD JOHN PIC (address unknown; may be living in Louisiana).
Mother: Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD (address unknown, Fort Worth, Texas).
Half brother: ROBERT L. OSWALD, 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas. This brother is married and is a student at TCU.
Half brother: LEE HARVEY OSWALD (address unknown; formerly from Fort Worth, Texas) (Former U. S. Marine).

PIC explained that his family relationship is not a close one due to his mother's several marriages. He related that his mother is a very argumentative person and is very difficult to get along with; consequently, he has severed his connections with her.

PIC related that he last saw his brother LEE approximately 6 1/2 years ago (spring or summer of 1953) when LEE was about 13 years old. At that time, LEE and his mother resided in New York City and PIC was in the U. S. Coast Guard stationed nearby.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

He described LEE as a moody and bitter youngster, and attributed this bitterness to his mother's personality. PIC said he has received only one letter from LEE and that was about two years ago when LEE first joined the Marine Corps. He related that he planned to answer the letter, but the return address was illegible, and he has never corresponded with LEE.

When questioned as to the motives LEE might have for his contemplated renunciation of citizenship, PIC stated that his mother had experienced an accident at her place of work and he believed that she requested the Marine Corps officials to discharge LEE in order that he might support and take care of her. LEE was reportedly very much attached to the Marine Corps and planned to make it a career. However, since LEE is a minor, his mother might have been successful in her request and perhaps LEE was resentful for being forced out of his chosen career. PIC related that LEE was not scheduled to be discharged normally until December 1959. PIC also believed that LEE might have been influenced by the actions of two other Americans who renounced their citizenship in recent months and whose actions were widely publicized.

PIC related that, to his knowledge, LEE had never been to Europe before, nor had he ever had any acquaintances or contacts there. He said that he did not know LEE's position in the Marine Corps, or whether he had access to classified materials or areas while a member of the military, but believed LEE does not possess any technical knowledge whatsoever.

PIC stated that he has obtained the above information concerning LEE by letter from his brother ROBERT and personally from a cousin, Miss MARILYN MURRETT, who is a teacher in Japan and resides in a hotel (name unknown) in Itabashi, Tokyo. Miss MURRETT is from New Orleans, Louisiana, and is the daughter of his mother's sister.

PIC stated that LEE's actions have caused him and his wife great mental anguish since they are loyal citizens of the United States; and although he feels he has a moral obligation to attempt to dissuade LEE from this action, he was reluctant to pursue the attempt unless it was with USAF sanction. He related that although LEE's actions invoked a strong family feeling within him and that he would do anything to stop LEE from this action, his first loyalty was to his country and to the USAF; and that should LEE persist in going through with his intent, he would be "legally dead" as far as PIC was concerned.

PIC produced two newspaper articles concerning the action of his half brother LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The clippings were taken from the "Stars and Stripes" newspaper. To date of interview, PIC's relationship with LEE had not become known locally, and PIC had not been approached by any member of the press.

A review of the files of this District Office reflected no information pertaining to LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JOHN E. PIC.

Reproductions of the newspaper clippings given this District Office by PIC were made; a copy of which is appended to this report as an inclosure.

3. On 15 January 1960, correspondence emanating from the Directorate, OSI (IG) PACAF, APO 953, was reviewed. Within this correspondence were attachments initiated by the U. S. Naval and U. S. State Departments which are pertinent to this investigation.

The naval authorities relate summarily as follows: OSWALD is a PFC in the Inactive Marine Corps Reserve with an obligated service until 3 December 1962. OSWALD attended an Aircraft Control and Warning Operator course in 1957. He served with Marine Air Control Squadrons in Japan and Taiwan, with duties involving ground control intercept. His job description code indicates that he is an aviation electronics operator. There is no record of his clearance at Hq, Marine Corps, but the possibility exists that he may have had access to CONFIDENTIAL information. OSWALD's service number is 1653230; his DOB/POB 18 October 1939 at New Orleans, Louisiana; he was released to inactive duty on 11 September 1959; his home of record is 4936 Collinwood Street, Fort Worth, Texas. OSWALD has a brother, JOHN EDWARD PIC, 11313239, on active duty with the USAF.

The Department of State officials relate summarily as follows: USAF Staff Sergeant JOHN E. PIC, Tachikawa Air Base, called at the Embassy, Tokyo, Japan, on 6 November 1959, concerning news reports that his half brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, 20 years old, intends to renounce U. S. citizenship and become a Soviet citizen. According to Moscow AP dispatch in "Pacific Stars and Stripes" November 1, LEE OSWALD is at the Metropole Hotel, Moscow. UPI story dated Fort Worth, Texas, reports another brother, ROBERT L. OSWALD, has attempted to reach LEE OSWALD by cable to Moscow and has also sent a telegram to Secretary HERTER pleading for assistance in contacting him. PIC asked that the Embassy inform him of any developments about LEE OSWALD and requested that Embassy Moscow, if possible, transmit to him the following message: "Please reconsider your intentions. Contact me if possible. Love. (Signed) JOHN."

4. On 18 January 1960, a review of SUBJECT's military records reflected the following information:

U.S. Defector to Reds Turned to Marx at 15

By PRISCILLA JOHNSON
North American Newspaper Alliance

MOSCOW, Nov. 25.—"For two years now I have been waiting to do this one thing: To dissolve my American citizenship and become a citizen of the Soviet Union." Today 20-year-old Lee Harvey Oswald of Fort Worth, Tex., is in Moscow. He hopes he's close to his goal.

With his suit of charcoal gray flannel, dark tie and tan cashmere sweater, Lee looks every bit like Joe College. His life hasn't been that of a typical college boy, however.

His father, an insurance salesman, died before Lee was born. Reared in Texas and Louisiana, the boy spent two years in New York during his early teens. At 17 he enlisted in the Marines.

"I did it because we were poor and I didn't want to be a burden on my mother," he says. Later he spent 14 months as a licensed radar operator in the Far East.

Vows He Won't Return

In September, his three-year hitch nearly over, Lee was given a dependency discharge from the Marines. The next month he arrived in Moscow to petition the Supreme Soviet, highest legislative body in the USSR, for Soviet citizenship. Living in Moscow's Hotel Metropole on money he earned as a United States Marine, Lee Oswald waits for an answer.

Even though Russian officials have warned him Soviet citizenship is not easy to obtain, Lee already refers to the Soviet government as "my government."

"But even if I'm not accepted, on no account will I go back to the United States," Lee says. "I shall remain here, if necessary, as a resident alien." The only thing Soviet officials now promise is that Lee can stay on in Russia regardless of whether he becomes a citizen. Meanwhile, they're "investigating" the possibility of sending him to a Soviet higher technical institute.

Found Answer in Marx

What brought this serious, soft-spoken southern boy to Moscow? Evidently, it's a combination of poverty, what he considers the plight of United States Negroes, and the United States Marines.

"My mother has been a worker all her life," Lee says. "She's a good example of what happens to workers in the United States." He declines to elaborate.

"At the age of 15," he adds, "after watching the way workers are treated in New York, and Negroes in the South, I was looking for a key to my environment. Then I discovered socialist literature."

Lee was struck, in particular, by Marx's "Das Kapital." He concluded that, as an American, "I would become either a worker exploited for capitalist profit, or an exploiter or, since there are many in this category, I'd be one of the unemployed."

Lee became a Marxist. Later, as a Marine Corps private in Japan and the Philippines, he "had a chance to watch American militarist imperialism in action."

A year ago, Lee began getting ready to come to Russia. Using a Berlitz grammar, he taught himself to read and write Russian. Never, says Lee, a nice-looking six-footer with gray eyes and brown hair, did he consider deserting the Marine Corps.

Neither Side Hasty

Does it occur to Lee that Soviet officials may be embarrassed by his effort to become a citizen of their country at a moment when Russia is cultivating good relations with the United States?

Russian officials, says Lee, "don't encourage and don't discourage me." They warn, however, that neither Lee's wish, nor theirs, will determine whether his citizenship application is accepted. They have offered Lee only the sanctuary of a prolonged stay in the USSR.

As for officials at the United States Embassy in Moscow, they are torn between their desire to give Lee time to think it over, and their legal obligation to hear his oath renouncing American citizenship if he insists.

Lee is bitter at United States Consul Richard Snyder, who, he charges, stalled him when he asked to take the oath on October 31, the only time Lee has been at the Embassy. As a result, Lee won't go back there.

Two Other Cases

Embassy officials admit they are a bit gunshy. This is their third case of attempted defection this fall. The first, Nicholas Petrulli, 38, of Valley Stream, L. I., changed his mind about defecting just before Russia refused him citizenship. Petrulli, a sheet-metal worker, had a history of mental illness.

The second, Robert Edward Webster, 30, of Cleveland, an employe of the Rand Development Corp., asked for, and received, Soviet citizenship after he had spent the summer working at the United States fair in Moscow's Sokolniki Park. Both Webster and Petrulli had marital troubles back home.

Unlike Webster and Petrulli, Lee Oswald has never been married. His age—he just turned 20 on October 18—is apparently no bar to renouncing his American citizenship. Russians come of age at 18.

As for the ordinary Russians he meets, do they seem surprised by Lee's desire to defect?

"Well," says Lee, "they're very curious and they ask me why." Materialist Muscovites, he adds, "understand when I speak of the idealistic reasons that brought me here. They ask me many questions about the material conditions of workers in the United States."

Regardless of any "material shortcomings" he sees while he's here, Lee insists he will never go back to the United States. "Emigration," he says, "isn't easy. I don't recommend it to everyone. It means coming to a new country, always being the outsider, always having to adjust. But to me, my reasons are strong and good. I believe I'm doing right."

That's why Lee won't take any calls when his mother telephones from Fort Worth to beg him not to defect.

Rebuffed

Lee Harvey Oswald's dream of achieving Soviet citizenship in exchange for the United States citizenship he renounced appears to be unattainable. The 20-year-old Texan from Fort Worth said Soviet authorities would not grant him citizenship although they said he could live in Russia as a resident alien.

(U) LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Dir OSI PACAF (CI Div)

1. On 4 November 1959, JOHN E. PIC, S/Sgt, AF 11313239, NCOIC, Blood Chemistry Section, USAF Hospital, Tachikawa, APO 323, voluntarily appeared at Detachment 2 of this District Office and furnished the following information to Special Agents SHIGEO R. OKUMA and JOHN T. COX:

On Sunday night, 1 November 1959, he heard a radio broadcast relative to his half-brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who had allegedly turned in his passport to American Embassy officials in Moscow, USSR, stating the intention of renouncing his U. S. citizenship. PIC stated that he had been to the Chaplain, Tachikawa Air Base, who suggested that he report to this office. PIC stated that OSWALD is his half-brother, his mother having been married several times. He identified his family as follows:

- Mother: Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD (address unknown, Fort Worth, Texas.)
- Half-Brother: ROBERT L. OSWALD, 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas. This brother is married and is a student at TCU.
- Half-Brother: LEE HARVEY OSWALD (address unknown; formerly from Fort Worth, Texas) (Former U. S. Marine)

PIC explained that his family relationship is not a close one due to his mother's several marriages. He related that his mother is a very argumentative person and is very difficult to get along with; consequently, he has severed his connections with her.

PIC related that he last saw his brother LEE approximately 6 1/2 years ago (spring or summer of 1953) when LEE was about 13 years old. At that time, LEE and his mother resided in New York City and PIC was in the U. S. Coast Guard stationed nearby.

He described LEE as a moody and bitter youngster, and attributed this bitterness to his mother's personality. PIC said he has received only one letter from LEE and that was about two years ago when LEE first joined the Marine Corps. He related that he planned to answer the letter, but the return address was illegible, and he has never corresponded with LEE.

When questioned as to the motives LEE might have for his contemplated renunciation of citizenship, PIC stated that his mother had experienced an accident at her place of work and he believed that she requested the Marine Corps officials to discharge LEE in order that he might support and take care of her. LEE was reportedly very much attached to the Marine Corps and planned to make it a career. However, since LEE is a minor, his mother might have been successful in her request and perhaps LEE was resentful for being forced out of his chosen career. PIC related that LEE was not scheduled to be discharged normally until December 1959. PIC also believed that LEE might have been influenced by the actions of two other Americans who renounced their citizenship in recent months and whose actions were widely publicized.

PIC related that, to his knowledge, LEE had never been to Europe before, nor had he ever had any acquaintances or contacts there. He said that he did not know LEE's position in the Marine Corps, or whether he had access to classified materials or areas while a member of the military, but believed LEE does not possess any technical knowledge whatsoever.

PIC stated that he has obtained the above information concerning LEE by letter from his brother ROBERT and personally from a cousin, Miss MARILYN MURRETT, who is a teacher in Japan and resides in a hotel (name unknown) in Itabashi, Tokyo. Miss MURRETT is from New Orleans, Louisiana and is the daughter of his mother's sister.

PIC stated that LEE's actions have caused him and his wife great mental anguish since they are loyal citizens of the United States; and although he feels he has a moral obligation to attempt to dissuade LEE from this action, he was reluctant to pursue the attempt unless it was with USAF sanction. He related that although LEE's actions invoked a strong family feeling within him and that he would do anything to stop LEE from this action, his first loyalty was to his country and to the USAF; and that should LEE persist in going through with his intent, he would be "legally dead" as far as PIC was concerned.

2. PIC produced two newspaper articles concerning the action of his half-brother LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The clippings were taken from the "Stars and Stripes" newspaper and are attached as an inclosure to this letter.

To date, PIC's relationship with LEE has not become known locally, and PIC has not been approached by any member of the press.

3. A review of the files of this District Office reflected no information pertaining to SUBJECT or JOHN E. PIC.

4. With the submission of the above information, no further action is contemplated in this matter, and the case is CLOSED in the files of this District Office.

5. This letter report is classified CONFIDENTIAL because it contains investigative information which requires protection against unauthorized disclosure.
