

Dear Clay,

10/9/98

What you suggest in your ward is a worthwhile project. Fact is I was helping someone else ~~an~~ exactly that. He is a New Zealand prof. and was well started on it when for a reason he did not explain he dropped that started book and the subject. In English that could have served the purpose here. I suspect his reason was family pressures, building the new house needed as the children grew, and putting that time in a book business he was starting.

As I think I once said, with me, what I decide to do is what I think is at that time the best use of the time I have left. Which now, as we both deteriorate, seems to be less. I illustrate with the new manuscript on which I am at the end of Chapter 2. It is on the whitewash by the ARRB.

Is that something you believe anyone else is likely to do? How many do you believe can do it? Can any of the numerous theorizers of ~~the~~ what is already proven to be impossible?

And, of course, is it not something that should be done?

I am one person who is lucky to have had the time to do as much as I have and I hope I will have time for more.

The ARRB is not only another whitewash, if ^{sp} accepted if it did not suborn perjury and that should be available to the people. (Another whitewash is coming on the King/Ray case.)

What Gallen decided speaks for itself. When it is not too much of a burden I'll appreciate the normal spacing of a copy printed on one side only on the chance an interest might develop.

Thanks and best,

Harold

Were it not for the impeachment hearings I'd send a copy to each of several black Members of Congress but now they'd not take time to read it, I think it is obvious that normal editing could eliminate what Gallens does not like. There was when controversy was welcome by publishers.

It was nice talking with you yesterday on the Telephone. I have finished Chapter two and am into Chapter Three. of the Manuscript
I have drafted "Badly Reasoned".

If you have nothing pending with Near future for a manuscript idea
I need your revised Recommendation idea of writing a short children's adventurer's level book on the JFK assassination. all that is out there generally lean to supporting the U.S.
of the conspirator's are sure to succeed in perpetuating the myth it will be through the minds of children.
I believe you are the best person
to be able to take the literature

Well,
feel better soon,
okay?

Summary of the A.S.O.'s report
and indicate where it is unrepresented by the facts. I believe it would be a legacy that would serve America well beyond after lives have passed. Additionally, it would be a gift to America's youth from a man who would not and could not let the truth
die.
Clay D.

Hope you and 'ol' one feelin'
better with every passing day.
