Army Seeks 1,500 to Check Aftereffects of LSD Tests

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)! However, the spokesman said, —The Army said Friday that the Army does not have the it would try to find nearly 1,500 names of the 900 persons who persons who were subjects of had been tested by the univer-LSD experiments it conducted sities and civilian hospitals in the nineteen-fifties and nine- working under Army contracts. teen-sixties and have them un-The Army will rely on these dergo medical evaluation to institutions to come up with determine whether there have the names, he said. been any aftereffects.

Test Locations

A total of 385 persons, mostly Soldiers, were tested directly by been examined at Walter Reed the Army at the Edgewood Army Medical Center during the Arsenal in Maryland, at Fort past 12 months, the Army said.
Bragg in North Carolina, Forti The results of these examinaMcClellan in Alabama, Dugway tions are expected this fall Proving Ground in Utah, and after analysis is completed.
Fort Benning in Georgia.
The soldiers who were tested men who were soldiers at Fort ranged from enlisted men Benning at the time of the exthrough colonels, the Army said periments have reported that In addition, according to the they are in good health, that sored studies at the University tion in Vietnam. of Maryland Psychiatric Insti-tute, the New York Psychiatric Institute, the University of Wisconsin, the University of Washington Medical School, and the Tulane University Department of Neurology and Psychiatry. A spokesman said that the Army knew the names of the 585 persons tested directly by the Army and that efforts were under way to reach them for medical evaluation.

Plans Incomplete

been any aftereffects.

The tests, which involved both soldiers and civilians, began in 1956 and did not end until 1967 according to the Army's statement. The state-that the load would be so great that the load would be so great that the examination would ment indicated for the first that the examination would the extent of the Army locations. The Army said the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council Medical Followup Agency and the lonly volunteers had been used be asked to help out.

As before, the Army said that ical Followup Agency and in the experiments, which were laimed at determining the effects of the mind-altering drug on military performance.

As before, the Army said that ical Followup Agency and in the effect of the asked to help out.

Evaluation has already started in a limited way, the Army said, with an effort to examine military performance.

34 soldiers who took LSD in these at Fort Benning in 1960. tests at Fort Benning in 1960.

In addition, according to the they are in good health, that statement, about 900 civilians seven have not been located, were tested under Army-spon- and that one was killed in ac-