

Brussels, March 11, 1977

I, George de Mornay, bought 48 one hundred dollar American Express Travelers checks with a check on my account 634-1734 at Oak Cliff Bank and Trust Company. The numbers of the checks were AB 42-325-304 to 349. This was done on ~~2/25~~ 24, 1977 and I have the receipt. When Willem Oltmans drove my car from Dallas to Houston. The ticket from Houston to Holland was paid by Willem Oltmans or Carl Engelsers (?) supposedly on the Dutch television. The purpose of the trip was to discuss eventual TV appearances, a look on LMA Harvey Oswald and my friendship with him.

David Russell, friend of W. Oltmans with domicile in Houston, 2020 Buldy Street No 3, tel. 703-522-7434 promised to take care of my car and signed a receipt which I have. I gave him the insurance card.

Arrived in Holland with Oltmans and stayed with him at Amerbos 205, Amsterdam. Noticed that the house was registered in the name of his top-friend Van der Vorm. Oltmans also has a residence in New York, New York and his car has a New York license.

Immediately, we had a meeting with Gerold Croiset at his home. He is supposed to be a clairvoyant who had connected my name with Oswald. Present also was Earl Engelsers or Dutch TV (?). We also had a meeting next day with Mr. H. Jansen of Struikold publications. This publishing company wanted to give me a contract for a sensational book re. Oswald and my influence on him. How sensational? We could not come to an agreement. We were supposed to meet again on Monday.

While staying at Oltmans I had the impression that I was watched and later I thought that my travel documents were exchanged. But my signature seemed OK and the numbers of the checks were correct. So I could not be sure they were exchanged. During my stay with Oltmans he was constantly worried about noise and probably, he did not want the neighbours know that I was staying there. Oltmans or his associates imitated my handwriting to such perfection that I can hardly see the difference. See "Telegraph" and "Janta" in my address-book. "Janta" is in my handwriting the other is not.

Willem Oltmans brought me by car to Brussels Saturday March 5th to see Beljusz. He was supposed also to meet his friend of the Soviet Embassy (Lentov). The drive Amsterdam - Brussels was pure hell. Oltmans unreltrained homosexuality and demands on me re. book and TV appearances were too much for me. He wanted to bully me into admitting things I did not do. While Oltmans was with the Soviet man, I called my old friend and associate from Antwerp, Mr. T. Janta-Polczynski. I was in despair and asked him to contact the U.S. Embassy re. my whereabouts if more pressure was put on me. Kindly Mr. Janta asked me to stay with him for a few days and to relax.

George de Mohrenchildt, page 2

Oltmans stole all my belongings but I was too disgusted to talk to him. Mr. Janta spoke to Oltmans and Oltmans returned my clothes. Three people (Oltmans, Angelina, Christette) are instrumental, I believe, in stealing my travelers checks and replacing them when I was drugged. The imitation of my signature was so perfect I could not believe it. To be on the safe side however I cashed the checks 331-206 to 336-249 on March 10 and bought new ones at the Main Office of the Krediet bank in Brussels.

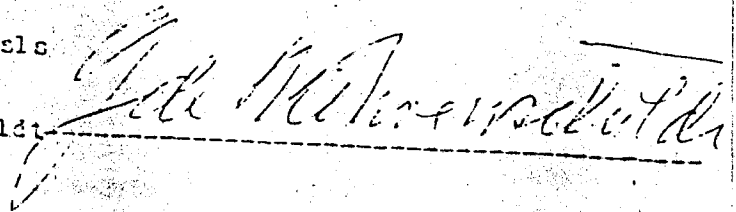

I have a meeting with Reader's Digest people on March 15th in New York City. The date was arranged from Houston. The meeting is with Edward Jay Speerin, editorial writer, and the ~~thing~~ was agreed upon with the Editor in Chief, Mr. Fulton Oursler, Jr.

As I can see it now, the whole purpose of my meeting in Holland was to ruin me financially and completely. I am afraid that my wife's lawyer, Pat Russell, Jr. of Dallas contacted with Oltmans.

In the way of clarification, my relationship with Oltmans dates from about 10 years ago. Christette supposedly told Oltmans that I knew Oswald. Hence Oltmans came to Dallas to have an interview with Jeanne and I for the Dutch TV. The actual interview was done by CBS Dallas. Later by me and I made a lengthy interview on tape. This interview is in Oltmans possession. It is the property of ours as indicated several times on paper. Neither Dutch TV nor Oltmans are supposed to use this taped interview without Jeanne's and my permission.

March 11, 1977. Done in Brussels

Signed; George de Mohrenchildt

Brussels, March 11, 1977

I, George de Mohrenschildt bought 46 one hundred dollar American Express Travelers checks with a check on my account 684-3734 at Oak Cliff Bank and Trust Company. The numbers of the checks were RB 43-386- 804 to 849. This was done on Febr. 24, 1977 and I have the receipt. Then Willem Oltmans drove my car from Dallas to Houston. The ticket from Houston to Holland was paid by Willem Oltmans or Carl Engelaers (?) supposedly of the Dutch Television. The purpose of the trip was to discuss eventual TV appearances, a book on Lee Harvey Oswald and my friendship with him.

David Russell, friend of W. Oltmans with domicile in Houston, 2020 Huldy Street No. 8, tel. 703- 522- 7434 promised to take care of my car and signed a receipt which I have. I gave him the insurance card.

Arrived in Holland with Oltmans and stayed with him at Amerbos 205, Amsterdam. Noticed that the house was registered in the name of his boy-friend Van de Wouw. Oltmans also has a residence in New York, Kew Gardens and his car has a New York license.

Immediately, we had a meeting with Gerald Croisette at his home. He is supposed to be a clairvoyant who had connected my name with Oswald. Present also was Karl Engelaer of Dutch TV (?). We also had a meeting next day with Mr. H. Janssen of Stranghold publications. This publishing company wanted to give me a contract for a sensational book re. Oswald and my influence on him. How sensational? We could not come to an agreement. We were supposed to meet again on Monday.

While staying at Oltmans I had the impression that I was drugged and later I thought that my travelers checks were exchanged. But my signature seemed OK and the numbers on the checks were correct. So I could not be sure they were exchanged. During my stay with Oltmans he was constantly worried about noise and probably he did not want the neighbours know that I was staying there. Oltmans or his associates imitated my handwriting to such perfection that I can hardly see the difference. See "Polczynski" and "Janta" in my address-book. "Janta" is in my handwriting the other is not.

Willem Oltmans brought me by car to Brussels Saturday March 5th to see Belgium. He was supposed also to meet his friend of the Soviet Embassy (Denisov). The drive Amsterdam - Brussels was pure hell. Oltmans unrestrained homosexuality and demands on me re. book and TV appearances were too much for me. He wanted to bully me into admitting things I did not do. While Oltmans was with the Soviet man, I called my old friend and schoolmate from Antwerp, Mr. T. Janta-Polczynski. I was in despair and asked him to contact the U.S. Embassy re. my whereabouts if more pressure was put on me. Kindly Mr. Janta asked me to stay with him for a few days and to relax.

George de Mohrenschildt, Page 2

Oltmans now has all my belongings but I was too disgusted to talk to him. Mr. Janta spoke instead and Oltmans refused to return my clothes. Three people (Oltmans, Engelaer, Croisette) are instrumental, I believe, in stealing my travelers checks and replacing them when I was drugged. The imitation of my signature was so perfect I could not believe it. To be on the safe side however I cashed the checks 386-806 to 386-849 on March 10 and bought new ones at the Main Office of the Krediet Bank in Brussels.

I have a meeting with Reader's Digest people on March 15th in New York City. The date was arranged from Houston. The meeting is with Edward Jay Epstein, editorial writer, and the time was agreed upon with the Editor in Chief, Mr. Fulton Oursler, Jr.

As I can see it now, the whole purpose of my meeting in Holland was to ruin me financially and completely. I am afraid that my wife's lawyer, Pat Russell, Jr. of Dallas collaborated with Oltmans.

In the way of clarification, my relationship with Oltmans dates from about 10 years ago. Croisette supposedly told Oltmans that I knew Oswald, hence Oltmans came to Dallas to do an interview with Jeanne and I for the Dutch TV. The actual interview was done by CBS Dallas. Later my wife and I made a lengthy interview on tape. This interview is in Oltmans possession. It is the property of ours as indicated several times on tapes. Neither Dutch TV nor Oltmans are supposed to use this taped interview without Jeanne's and my permission.

March 11, 1977. Done in Brussels

Signed; George de Mohrenschildt-----