Dear Paul and Gary,

I am told by a confidential source of the Right, unknown to both of you, that we should be interested in "Operation Christy Colon" or "Christy." I am further told this is the secret CIA knockoff operation, that it is practically unknown, that one member of the Washington detective bureau, when interviewed about this by my source, was promptly ejected from the office. I suppose the spelling could be "Christie". I can draw no immediate significance from the choice of name.

I am also told that two names should interest us, Elena Terry and Max Horlick. If either is known to you, I'd like to hear. The strangest thing of all is that when he was telling me this story the day I became ill, I gave him in advance a name almost identical with Elena Terry and have no idea at all why it came to mind! I had said "Eleanor Perry"!

There has been no response from N.C. to the things I sent of which you have copies save for a rueful comment from Louis, "Wish we'd paid attention to you about Tom". There has been no comment on or expression of interest in the Lawrence material re lit dist. However, I have carried this ~~ax~~ little further. Bloomfield is still operating the ITM.

Neither further word from Matt nor response by the AG to my letter reporting the reported FBI interest in me.

H
