Dear Jonathan,

Still no ^{word} ~~word~~ on these pictures from the ~~archives~~ ⁴.

And I would very much like to have them.

Can you please nudge the person to whom you spoke?

I suppose at about the date on the enclosure Bud gave it to me.

He had some source on the content of a tape made of an Oswald call to the USSR embassy in Mexico City. Correction, two calls.

Is there anything else on this? His source? Anything earlier or later?

Does the question, anyone there speak English, point to other than Oswald?

Would he have refused to identify himself, I wonder?

Do I take it you have seen nothing new and significant about Posner?

I was not up for the shows. I've been given to understand that on the anniversary CNN Crossfire, a repeat of Posner and Wecht, Posner admitted that the flap of JBC's lapel is not as new as his book says. If you have a transcript I'll appreciate a copy of it.

Or of any other in which Posner says other than in his book, or backs off on any of it.

Thanks and best wishes,

Side 1

~~Two + two~~

- Boris Tarasoff - Translator at CIA station in 1963.
+ 1st conversation - LHO inquiring how to get into Soviet Embassy - "anyone who speaks English
"No" "call back later - Did he identify [2nd conversation was much longer]

himself? No - just wanted to talk to someone CIA asked Tarasoff to try to identify caller -
* 2nd long conversation - Singled out as important also in English - Mrs. Tarasoff worked on it - urgent - Speaker gave his name - no comments about "poor Russian," No editorial comments - Person did not want to stay in Mexico or return to US - Wanted financial aid to get out of Mexico - Went to Cuban + Russian for financial aid - He said he was broke -
Said nothing about Q & Q by giving info.
"cool individual" "determined" - "angry"
Don't know to ~~know~~ ^{whom} LHO was talking -
Original + two copies -
