

Subject: OSWALD'S SANITY

In Vol. 18, p.464, there is a Russian hospital record showing that Oswald, following his attempted suicide, had 3 days of psychiatric observation while in the hospital. The psychiatrist's conclusion at that time was that he was "not dangerous to other people".