

Dallas to Laredo or points beyond by the Dallas office of Continental Trailways, the only bus line on which Oswald could have made connections with the bus on which he was later seen. Furthermore, if Oswald had traveled from Dallas to Alice, he would not have reached the Houston to Laredo bus stop where he was first reportedly observed on it by the McFarlands. Oswald had also told passengers on the bus to Laredo that he had traveled from New Orleans by bus, and made no mention of an intervening stop in Dallas.<sup>724</sup> In addition, the Commission noted evidence that on the evening of September 25, 1963, Oswald had been seen on a call to a Houston proping to visit a resident of Houston that evening and the fact that such a call would appear to be inconsistent with Oswald's having been in Dallas at the time. It thus appeared that the evidence was persuasive that Oswald was not in Dallas on September 25, and, therefore, that he was not in that city at the time Mrs. Odio said she saw him.

In spite of the fact that it appeared almost certain that Oswald could not have been in Dallas at the time Mrs. Odio thought he was, the Commission requested the FBI to conduct further investigation to determine the validity of Mrs. Odio's testimony.<sup>725</sup> The Commission considered the problems raised by that testimony as important in view of the possibility it raised that Oswald may have had companions on his trip to Mexico.<sup>726</sup> The Commission specifically requested the FBI to attempt to locate and identify the two men who Mrs. Odio stated were with the man she thought was Oswald.<sup>727</sup> In an effort to locate the FBI located and interviewed Manuel Ray, a leader of the FBI who confirmed that Mrs. Odio's parents were political prisoners in Cuba, but stated that he did not know anything about the alleged Oswald visit.<sup>728</sup> The same was true of Rogelio Cisneros,<sup>729</sup> a former anti-Castro leader from Miami who had visited Mrs. Odio in June of 1962 in connection with certain anti-Castro activities.<sup>730</sup> Additional investigation was conducted in Dallas and in other cities in search of the visitors to Mrs. Odio's apartment, and Mrs. Odio herself was reinterviewed.<sup>731</sup>

On September 16, 1964, the FBI located Loran Eugene Hall in Johnsandale, Calif.<sup>732</sup> Hall has been identified as a participant in numerous anti-Castro activities.<sup>733</sup> He told the FBI that in September of 1963 he was in Dallas, soliciting aid in connection with anti-Castro activities. He said he had visited Mrs. Odio. He was accompanied by Lawrence Howard, a Mexican-American from East Los Angeles and one William Seymour from Arizona. He stated that he was similar in appearance to Lee Harvey Oswald; he speaks only a few words of Spanish,<sup>734</sup> as Mrs. Odio had testified one of the men who visited her did.<sup>735</sup> While the FBI had not yet completed its investigation into this matter at the time the report went to press, the Commission has established that Lee Harvey Oswald was not at Mrs. Odio's apartment in September of 1963.

The Commission has also noted the testimony of Evaristo Rodriguez, a bartender in the Habana Bar in New Orleans, to the effect that he saw Oswald in that bar in August of 1963 in the company of a

Latin-appearing man.<sup>736</sup> Rodriguez' description of the man accompanying the person he thought to be Oswald was similar in respects to the description given by Sylvia Odio since both testified that the man they have been of either Cuban or Mexican extraction, and had a slight bald spot on the forehead of his hairline.<sup>737</sup> Rodriguez' identification of Oswald was uncorroborated except for the testimony of the owner of the bar, Orest Pena; according to Rodriguez, Pena was not in a position to observe the man he thought later to have been Oswald.<sup>738</sup> Although Pena has testified that he did observe the same person as Rodriguez, and that this person was Oswald,<sup>739</sup> an FBI interview report indicated that a month earlier Pena had stated that he "could not at this time or at any time say whether or not the person was identified with Lee Harvey Oswald."<sup>740</sup> Though when testifying, Pena identified photographs of Oswald, the FBI report also recorded that he "stated the only reason he was able to recognize Oswald was because he had seen Oswald's picture in the news media so often after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy."<sup>741</sup> When present at Pena's bar, Oswald was supposed to have been intoxicated to the extent that he became ill,<sup>742</sup> which is inconsistent with other evidence that Oswald did not drink alcoholic beverages to excess.<sup>743</sup>

The Commission has also noted the testimony of Dean Andrews, an attorney in New Orleans. Andrews stated that Oswald came to his office several times in the summer of 1963 to seek advice on a less than honorable discharge from the Armed Forces, the citizenship status of his wife and his own citizenship status. Andrews, who believed that he was contacted on November 23 to represent Oswald, testified that Oswald was always accompanied by a Mexican and was at times accompanied by apparent homosexuals.<sup>744</sup> Andrews was able to locate the records of any of Oswald's alleged visits, and investigation has failed to locate the person who supposedly called Andrews on November 23, at a time when Andrews was under heavy sedation.<sup>745</sup> While some of Andrews' employees felt that Oswald might have been at his office, his secretary has no recollection of Oswald being there.<sup>746</sup>

Oswald Was Not an Agent for the U.S. Government

From the time of his release from the Marine Corps until the assassination, Lee Harvey Oswald dealt in various transactions with several agencies of the U.S. Government. Before departing the United States for the Soviet Union in 1959, he obtained an American passport, which he returned to the Embassy in Moscow in October 1959 when he attempted to renounce his U.S. citizenship. Thereafter, while in the Soviet Union, Oswald had numerous contacts with the American Embassy, both in person and through correspondence. Two years later, he applied for the return and renewal of his passport, which was granted him. His application concerning the admittance of his wife to this country was passed upon by the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the Department of Justice in addition to the State Department. And before returning to this country, he
