Police OK Beer License For Marina's Husband

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 29—(AP)—County Judge W. L. Sterrett says withdrawal of a police protest has cleared the way for issuing a beer license to Kenneth Jess Porter, husband of Marina Oswald Porter.

This occurred after Porter signed an affidavit stating his Russian-born wife held no interest in the bar and grill he intends to open.

Vice squad officers had pointed out earlier that an alien could not hold a license to sell beer. Police said Porter agreed that the license would be canceled if he died.

Mrs. Porter's former husband was Lee Harvey Oswald, named by the Warren Commission as the assassin of President John F. Kennedy. Oswald was killed two days later, Nov. 24, 1963, by Jack Ruby, a Dallas nightclub operator now under death sentence.
