Widow of Oswald Moves From Dallas

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Away from the "glass house" she wanted to leave in Dallas, the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald was in her new house here today.

Yesterday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters, and they were quick to tell Dallas newsmen they were happy to leave the town where Mrs. Porter's former husband shot and killed President John F. Kennedy and Policeman J. D. Tippit.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter asked as she left Dallas.

A few hours later, she was in Greenville, population 21,000, and about 50 miles northeast of Dallas.

Marina, her three children—two by Oswald and an infant born July 3—and a woman friend drove up to the modest frame and brick home. Her husband arrived shortly afterward.

Porter, an electronics technician, has relatives in Greenville. He also reportedly has a new job here.
