

May the child who lives within us
Gently teach us how to find
Joy and trust in one another--
Lasting faith in all mankind.

Do you think this ever happens?
Would that be wonderful, if all of us find it at the same time!
To dear Mr. Weisberg: wishing happiness and good health. Have a good holidays.
Take care.

Dear Marina,

"Finding faith in all mankind" is not likely in the real world but to learn "how to find Joy and trust ~~am~~ in one another" is possible and is to be hoped for.

Thanks for your card and your good wishes.

An update on your persecutor Mailer. He had agreed to speak at the convention of the Coalition on Political Assassinations in Washington in October. When he heard they were giving me an award, he assumed I'd be there to accept it and refused to be there. His explanation is that I'd insulted him.

I had used some strong language in referring to ~~Schiller~~ Schiller but not to him. I'd asked him how much Schiller got gyped out of by the Minsk ~~ABC~~. He did not respond.

I did not tell him I was writing a book for the record for history.

I finished that manuscript some time ago. It is long! And detailed!

If by any chance those you knew in what my parents used to refer to as "the old country" heard what Mailer said in his book I'd like to know.

Best wishes for the holiday and for the coming year.
