Dear Mrs. Poeter,

Nigel Turner tells me that you told him I have the FBI's tapes they made of your conversations.

I do not and never did.

The FBI tried to give them to me but I would not accept them. I knew enough about what was in them that the FBI disclosed and should not have disclosed not to want them and to believe the FBI ought not disclose them. If remember correctly there were 20 or so reels. I don't now recall whether I gave you the records in which they paraphrased what they overheard but they did, disclose them and they are or at least were in the FBI's public reading room. They do include your personal conversations with other and older women.

Under the Privacy Act they are not supposed to release this kind of information. Before the Privacy Act was enacted they were not supposed to release it under Exemption 7 (C) of the Freedom of Information Act.

I write to suggest that you consider writing them and saying that under your rights under the Privacy Act you request that they not disclose any information of a private, personal nature about you. Such a letter ought be sent to Headquarters in Washington. Their zip is 20535.

I am not now certain of the numbers of the Headquarters files that hold personal information about you or of the main Dallas file in which the teletyped paraphrases are. You do not need to know this to assert your rights.

I do recall the file numbers in Dallas for the relectronic surveillances. They try to hide such dirty-works by tritky filing. Thus, those records are filed in Dallas as "administrative matters!" They had no permission and sought none for the bugging of your home before you moved into it. J. Edgar Hoover talked Earl Warren in to wanting your phone tapped. He never mentioned bugging. Based on Hoover's statement that Warren wanted it the Department did approve the wiretapping. Because they never had any permission to bug they kept that in a separate file. The two Dallas numbers are 66-131- and ___-1313A.

They also maintained eye surveillance of your home in which they used a van that was parked nearby. Agents were hidden inside that van.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
