Q. Marina Oswald Porter, widow of Lee Harvey Oswald who assassinated President John F. Kennedy—how much did the government give her for having confiscated Oswald's personal possessions?—T.R., San Antonio, Tex.

A. The Federal Government paid Marina Oswald Porter $3800 for her husband's personal possessions—marriage license, notes, diary, family photographs, and so forth. Mrs. Oswald claims, however, that they were worth about $400,000 on the collector's market.

ASSASSIN'S WIDOW, MARINA OSWALD PORTER.
