Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter
Box 220A
Rockwall, Texas 75087

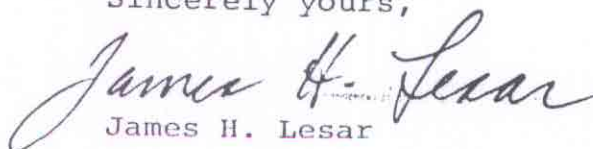

Dear Mrs. Porter:

Mr. Harold Weisberg, who I represent in a number of Freedom of Information Act lawsuits, asked me to draw up a Privacy Waiver which he could use to obtain the income tax returns and other records pertaining to the taxes and financial affairs of your former husband, Lee Harvey Oswald. I understand that you agreed to this when you phoned him last week.

I am enclosing six privacy waiver forms for you to complete, sign, and have notarized. This will enable Mr. Weisberg to send an original Privacy Waiver to each agency he thinks may have tax records pertaining to Mr. Oswald. If you sign the privacy waiver, the government agencies will have no grounds for refusing to disclose these records.

You may return the waiver forms either to me or to Mr. Weisberg, although it will save some time if you send them directly to me at the above address.

Sincerely yours,

James H. Lesar

cc: Mr. Harold Weisberg
