

CD 126, pp. 38-9 Oswald's literature dist, Lawrence Bright, Father Anthony, Ozanam Inn, ~~R~~rsel Hugo Frometa, Roberto Martinez Martinez

These two reports succeed in not developing the identities of the men who had been witnesses of the 8/18/63 handbilling.

The 38-9 Steinmeyer and Hogen might otherwise be interesting, in light of the capabilities of these agents, as for example, what they did with Ricardo Davis and his camp. If they are available, I'd like to see them.

Mr. L. BRIGHT, owner of the New Orleans Printing Company, 811 Camp Street, was recontacted at which time he stated that the two men who had come into his shop several months ago and were highly impressed by OSWALD's passing out literature in front of the International Trade Mart might not have been RAFAEL (LNU) and ROBERTO MARTINEZ MARTINEZ. He said from his recollection he thought the above two men were the men who had come into his shop but he said he sees so many Cubans and Spanish speaking men who are referred to him by the Ozanam Inn, 829 Camp Street, because they cannot speak English, he cannot keep them straight in his mind and he said he may have made a mistake. He said he could suggest no other possibilities as to the identity of the two men who had come into his shop and told him about OSWALD passing out literature in front of the International Trade Mart.

Father ANTHONY, Ozanam Inn, 829 Camp Street, advised on December 5, 1963 that he knew a Cuban mulatto named RAFAEL HUGO FROMETA who came from New York, he thought, and who was a longshoreman and seaman. He said FROMETA was the RAFAEL referred to by Mr. L. BRIGHT of the New Orleans Printing Company because he said he had discussed this matter with BRIGHT. Father ANTHONY said FROMETA always stayed at the Ozanam Inn when he was in New Orleans and said that his records indicated that FROMETA left on May 25, 1963 after saying he was to sail on a ship to Japan. FROMETA returned to New Orleans on October 16, 1963 and on the 16th and 17th of October stayed at the Ozanam Inn. Father ANTHONY said FROMETA had indicated to him that he had a job on some ship in Mobile, Alabama. Father ANTHONY said he had no idea where FROMETA could be at the time of the assassination in view of the fact that FROMETA stays at the Ozanam Inn when he is in town. He would check with the
