Dear Harold Weisberg:

Would you be interested in reviewing Presumed Guilty by Roffman (Fairleigh Dickinson), which you mention in your letter of 5 September? We could use 1200-1500 words for our February issue of the PSLQ.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Linda W. Ferguson

Dear both,

Would clearly love review Roffman's fine work but can't. Flat on back. Phlebitis. Strongly recommend Prof. David Wrona, History Dept., Univ. Wisconsin, Stevens Point, Wisc.

My own Post Mortem will be appearing soon ($10.00, $10.75 by insured mail) & I am not able to arrange to receive printed copies or promote it. Even get out a mailing.

Can't speak too highly of either Roffman or Wrona. Both very respectable, informed non-paranoid men.

Our circumstances preclude free review or press copies of our books now. We are only two people with an extraordinary burden falling on my wife now. We are having a special envelope printed in P.H. We will fill orders as rapidly as we can, those having mailing ~~be~~ labels first because we can thus reduce the stack fastest.

Please tell Don he will find this by far the most definite yet

Sorry but Thanks
Hardblom
