It is noted that the employee indicated employment with-the above company from June 7, 1945, to August 25, 1945, according to files located at Time, Inc., New York City.

Hoigiberhood:

Miss DEULAN ALLEN, 1938 Surmit Street, Columbus, Chio, advised on September 12, 1956, that William A. NYDE and his wife, CAROL NYDE, had resided at 1936 Summit Street, this city, for many years, but had resently moved to an address on Glemman Street, Columbus, Chio. She stated that the NYDES had three children to the best of her knowledge; namely, RUTH, SYLVIA, and CARL NYDE.

Miss ALLEM volunteered that she did not associate with the HYDES in view of the fact that they entertained individuals when she would not have in her can home. She explained this statement by saying that the HYDE family would periodically entertain people of different races in their home. She also advised that she had heard a rumor in this neighborhood a number of years ago, from a source that she cannot presently recall, to the effect that Irs. CAROL HYDE was a Communist. Hiss ALLEM said she could not elaborate on this statement and that she has no personal knowledge as to the basis of this rumor.

Miss ALLEN continued that she has never had personal contact with the employee and therefore could not comment on her character, reputation, associates, or loyalty.

Rogarding the employee's parents, Miss ALLEM said she knows nothing that would tend to reflect unfavorably on their character or loyalty to the United States, other than the runor mentioned above concerning Mrs. CAMOL MIDE. Miss ALLEM declined to furnish a signed statement and advised that she did not wish to appear before a Security Mearing Board relative to the information furnished by her.

Fr. MARCHD ECHMARDY, an official of the Highway Department, State of Chic, and a recident of 32 Crehard Lane, Columbus, Chic, reported on September 12, 1956, that he formerly resided at 1986 Survit Street, Columbus, Chic, and was a next-door neighbor of the HYDH family. He related he first became acquainted with Mr. VILLIAM HYDE semetime in 1990 when Mr. HYDE approached him to sign a petition regarding a political campaign. In. ECHMARDY said he believes Ir. HYDD was running as a candidate for a Committeeman's position for the Socialist or Progressive Party in the 16th Mard, Columbus, Chic.

If. ECHHARDT stated that he considered If. and Ifs.

MYDE as "socialistic in their approach" and he explained this by stating they often entertained individuals of different races in their home and expressed what he considered "socialistic views" in discussing issues of national importance. If. ECHMARDT was unable to define what he meant by "socialistic views" and could not recall any examples of statements by Ir. and Mrs. HYDE on issues of national importance which he considered "socialistic".
He was also unable to amplify his reference to "socialistic in.
their approach" beyond his explanation that they entertained individuals of different races.

Regarding the employee, Fr. ECMIARDT reported that he was not personally acquainted with her but does recall that she was married to Mr. HOKE at her family's home, 1986 Summit Street, Columbus, Chio, five or more years ago.

In conclusion, Mr. ECHHARDT said he has never heard any rumor or comment from anyone which would indicate the HYDE family was in any way associated or affiliated with the Communist Party. He stated that while he was a neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. HYDE, Mr. HYDE was an auditor with the Matientaide Insurance Company, which company was formerly known as the Farm Bureau Insurance Company, Columbus, Ohio.

In connection with information furnished by Mr. ECKHARDT, above, it is noted that the March 5, 1950 edition of the "Columbus Evening Dispatch", a daily newspaper published in Columbus, Chio, contains an article written by RONNIE JAUCHIUS, captioned: "ADA Ties Up With Democratic Insurgent Group". This article reads in part as follows:

The rebellion within county Denseratic ranks suffered a serious blow this week through political blundering of one of its many elements. That element, thich has always been on party fringes, is identified with such politices as HENRY E. WORLEY, son of the late Hayer and H. Conson HAYES, a professor of economics at Chio State University. It is also identified with the Columbus Chapter, Americans For Democratic Action, of which HAYES is chairman... Given special attention were the 16th and 19th Ward committee contests in which anti-HEER forces are represented by WILLIAM A. HYDE and JOHN S. ECOMMS, respectively. Mr. BOWERS, a member of the Progressive Party in 1948, was defeated in his bid for a City Council seat last year... Mr. HYDE is employed in the insurance department of the local Farm Burcau Co-Operative. Both he and Mr. BOWERS are ADA members and Mr. HYDE entered the 16th Ward race at Mr. WORLEYS urging....

Coptember 12, 1956, that on December 10, 1952, ALTA GUSTIN, 1990 Surmit Street, Columbus, Ohio, reported that Mrs. W. A. HYDE, wife of WILLIAM A. HYDE, had admitted to many neighbors that she was a Communist. further advised that the files contain no further information regarding Mrs. WILLIAM A. HYDE and no information of a derogatory nature concerning Mrs. HYDE or any other member of the employee's family.

Mrs. ALTA GUSTIN, 1990 Surmit Street, Columbus, Chio, reported on September 12, 1956, that she knew the HTDE family while they resided at 1986 Surmit Street for approximately six years. She went on to say she never associated with them since the HYDES were not well regarded in the neighborhood because of their choice of associates. Frs. GUSTIN characterised these associates as "foreigners".

Frs. GUSTIN stated she recalls that a few years ago there was a rumor circulating in the neighborhood to the effect that Mrs. HYDE had admitted she was a Communist. Frs. GUSTIN said she does not know how this rumor started and cannot recall who furnished her the information. She advised she does not know the employee and has heard nothing concerning her.

Frs. GUSTIN concluded by saying that she is in possession of no information other than the runer which would reflect unfavorably on the character, reputation, associates, or loyalty to the United States of Fr. and Frs. NYDE. Hrs. GUSTIN declined to furnish a signed statement and advised that she does not desire to appear before a Security Hearing Board with regard to the information furnished by her.

Ir. CHESTER SETTI, 1340 Herton Avenue, Columbus, Chio, reported on September 12, 1956, that he fermerly resided at 1950 Summit Street and is the brother of Pro. ALTA GUSTIN. He want on to say he was acquainted with the HTDD family when they resided at 1966 Summit Street, but did not know them well enough to comment on their character, reputation, associates, or loyalty to the United States.

He volunteered that the only unfavorable information in his possession regarding the HYDES was the fact they did entertain individuals of different races in their head in this neighborhood of one race. If. SHITH said he opposed this behavior from a personal standpoint.

IT. ETITH said he was not acquainted with the employee and was of the opinion she spent little time with her parents at 1986 Summit Street.

Dr. MARGARDT SHUTTLEWORTH, Psychologist, Veterans Administration, Columbus, Chio, and a resident in an apartment at 1990 Summit Street, Columbus, Chio, reported on September 12, 1956, that she has been closely associated with Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM A. HYDE for the past two years and has, on occasion, associated with CARL and RUTH HYDE, children of Mr. and Mrs. HYDE. She said the HYDES moved from her neighborhood about a year ago to 4400 Glenmaur Street, Columbus, Chio, but she still maintains contact with them.

Dr. SHUTTLEWORTH reported that the HYDES had informed her that they were Quakers and pacifists until World War II, but have since changed from this belief. She went on to say that their son, CARL, new a Doctor at Yellow Springs, Ohio, is presently a pacifist and member of the Quaker faith.

Regarding the employee, Dr. SHUTTENHORTH said she has never not SYLVIA HOME but is aware that she is a daughter of - Mr. and Mrs. HYDE.

Dr. CHUTTLEWORTH concluded by saying she considers the entire HYDE family to be of excellent character, reputation, associates, and loyalty to the United States and that nothing has ever come to her attention to cause her to think otherwise.

By letter dated July 18, 1950, Mrs. CLADYS M. CRETHER, 216-19th Avenue, Columbus, Chio, advised the Cincinnati Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, that Mrs. CAPOL HYDE, 1986 Summit

Street, was, during part of World War II, employed by the Consumers Co-op, which had an office at the corner of North High and Woodrulf Streets, Columbus, Chio. In this letter, Mrs. CHETHER advised that according to an article in the "Columbus Citizen", dated July 14, (year not shown) "The Consumers Co-op was supposed to have been a fence for Communistic activities."

Mrs. GREINER also stated in this letter that "BILL"
HYDE, husband of CAROL HYDE, was employed with the Farm Bureau, Columbus, Chio, and that according to the Columbus papers of July 14, (year not choim), the Farm Bureau "was supposed to be a clearing house for Communistic activities".

Mrs. GLADYS M. GREINER, an employee for the State of Ohio and a resident of 2636 Fendley Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, reported on September 19, 1956, that she first became acquainted with the HYDE family, who formerly lived at 1936 Summit Street, in 1942 or early 1943 while she, Mrs. Chieffer, lived at 319 19th Avenue, Columbus, Chio, which is a house on a corner next to 1936 Summit Street. She went on to say the HYDE family rented at 1936 Summit Street from her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. JAMES WELLS.

She related that although she knew Fr. and Mrs. WILLIAM HYDE and their three children; namely, RUTH, CARL and SYLVIA, for about eight years, she was not what could be considered personally acquainted with them since the HYDE family did not socialize with immediate neighbors.

In reference to the letter she wrote the Federal Bureau of Investigation on July 18, 1950, irs. CREMER said she could not recall the year the article regarding the Jonewiers Co-op and the Farm Europa appeared in the "Columbus Citizen", but it was her recollection that the article appeared many years prior to 1950 and possibly during World War II. Irs. GRETHER said she did not maintain a copy of this article.

1750 to report this information to the Federal Europa of Investigation because by 1950 more emphasis was being placed on Communica in the press and she was more aware of the danger of Communica.

Mrs. GREINER declined to furnish a signed statement and advised that she did not desire to testify before a Security Hearing Board with respect to the information furnished by her.

Ins. GREINER said she know the employee, SYLVIA, as a brilliant student whose character, reputation, associates and loyalty to the United States were rever questioned in her mind.

Regarding the employee's immediate family, Mrs. GREENER said she had no knowledge of any information, other than that reported above, which would tend to reflect unfavorably on their character, reputation, associates, or loyalty to the United States.

Ir. and Mrs. JAIES WILLS, 1904 Surmit Street, Columbus, Chio, were interviewed jointly on Liptember 19, 1996. They advised they rented helf of their heme at 10.6 Surmit Street to Ir. and Mrs. HYDE and their family approximately eight years ago. They said that during the eight or more years they know the HYDES, nothing came to their attention reflecting adversaly on their character, reputation, associates, or loyalty to the United States.

Ars. WELLS reported the following incident happened during the time ir. HVDJ resided next deer which she said did not constitute disloyalty in her mind. In this regard, irs. WELLS said she was talking to ir. HVDJ five or more years ago and the subject of Communica came up. She could not state how the subject came up but said she recalls saying to ir. HVDE that she did not understand Communica and would like to know what Communican was all about.

Mrs. WELLS stated that, thereupon, Mr. HYDE said that he had a book she could read which might give her an understanding of Communism. She said she read a few pages in this book leaned to her by Mr. HYDE and then gave it back to him. Mrs. WELLS said she could not state with certainty but feels the book dealt with "Marwism".

Mrs. WELLS related that during the above incident she does not recall any statement made by Mr. HYDE indicating that he was synthetic toward Communism or in any way subscribed to the teachings of MANA, and she added further that she does not recall hearing any statement from any member of the HYDE family which would tend to reflect unfavorably on their loyalty to the United States.

Mrs. WELLS said she did not desire to incorporate the above information in a signed statement or to testify to it in the event such testimony became necessary.
