PARTIN HEARING DAY SCHEDULED

Immunity Claimed by Teamster Boss

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge William D. Murray Monday set Feb. 4 for a hearing on defense motions in the federal extortion-antitrust case against teamster boss Edward G. Partin and Baton Rouge concrete executive Ted Dunham Jr.

Murray, assigned to Louisiana on a temporary basis from Butte, Mont., gave defense attorneys until Dec. 17 to file their final pleadings in the case.

The judge said the February hearing would be limited to motions by Partin to dismiss the charges, and, failing that, a change of venue.

Partin says he is immune from prosecution because of testimony he gave before a federal grand jury.

Partin and Dunham were indicted by a New Orleans grand jury last June on charges of extortion and violation of federal antitrust laws by allegedly conspiring to eliminate competition in the concrete business.

The indictments charged that the pair coerced purchasers of concrete products into dealing with Dunham companies by threatening strikes, work halts and property damage by members of Partin's Teamsters Local No. 5.
