Dear Jerry:

After getting your letter of the 6th, I spoke to Jim, who is overburdened with two pressing lengthy court of appeals briefs. He and I as of now will find any weekend that suits you fine for us.

I can find "leisure" any time, but Jim can't right now (CBS is also taking a lot of his time, less of mine because all those above researchers seem to be afraid of me). Jim has this suggestion: I meet you at the airport, take you to him, we spend whatever time you need with him, and then if you would like return here with me.

Aside from what I have indicated to you is in my files, there are some new matters I think you might want to take some time for.

You can crashpad here or there are two decent motels less than 10 minutes away. We have a pool and I think you are in between the sizes of spare bathing trunks I have.

If you are not familiar with the area airports, your best bets on nonstop flights are to Dulles and Friendship, which may now be called Baltimore-Washington International. Dulles is a little better for going to Jim's and a little closer to here.

You ask "when might be a good time." I am sure that for both of us the sooner the better. I personally would prefer the first weekend you can make it and I am sure Jim would also.

We are both looking forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
