

5/25/69

Dear Mr. Pevsner,

Here also is the memo you asked for on the book "Scavengers", published by Dell and Dial (related companies, in paper and hardbacked printings) and reprinted as it relates to me by Meredith. You have the Meredith part of the file.

I am sorry to give you so much volume at one time. I have been pushing to get this done for you. I do regret it has been delayed.

In the haste of getting it done to get in the mail in the morning, I forgot to quote the last ~~xxxxxxxxxxx~~ paragraph of the chapter on me in Scavengers. I think, in the light of what I have in the memo, it has materiality:

"And incredibly enough there are people who were doing the same thing without comparing Weisberg's charges against the Warren Commission's evidence".

This is to say I misrepresent that evidence, which I do not.

If any of what I have sent is inadequate or raises unanswered questions or is unclear, please let me know.

I sent you the only copy I have of the Meredith book "Weight of the Evidence", where Scavengers is reprinted. Therefore, I could not cite the pages in it. However, I began at the front end and proceeded in the order in which that writing appears, so once you get started, if you check it against what they wrote, it will follow in order.

I will do the remaining things as rapidly as I can.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg