WASHINGTON-President Johnson is sitting on a political (-bomb-an unconfirmed report that Sen. Robert Kennedy, N. Y. may have approved an assassination plot which hen possibly backfired against his late brother Top officials, queried by this column, agreed that a plot assassinata Cuban dictator idel Castro was "considerd" at the highest levels of he Central Intelligence Agenat the time Bobby was iding herd on the agency. The officials disagreed, howver, over whether the planwas approved and implement-

One version claims that unterworld [15were recruited to carry out the plot. Another rum or has it that three hired assassing were caught in Havana where a survivor 12 is still sup- page egasson posed to be languishing in prison. These stories have been investigated and dis-counted by the FBL

Yet the rumor persists, whispered by people in a position to know, that Castro did become aware of an American plot upon his life and declded to retaliate against President Kennedy.

This report may have started New Orleans' flamboyant Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison on his investigation of the Kennedy assassination, but insiders) believe he is iollowing the wrong trails.

This much can be verified: 1. President Kennedy was so disillusioned with the CIA after the Bay of Pigs flasco that he swore to friends he would like "to splinter the CIA in a thousand pleces and scatter it to the winds." Ha ordered a thorough investigaordered a thorough investiga-tion by a group headed by Gen. Maxwell Taylor. But the President's real watchdog was his brother marky, who ended up calling the shots at the CIA

2. During this period, the CIA hatched a plot to knock off Castro. It would have been impossible for this to reach the high levels it did say insiders, without being taken up with the younger Kennedy. Indeed, one source insists that Bobby, eager to avenge the Bay of Pigs fiasco, played a key role in the planning. Whether the assassination plot was ever actually put into effect is disputed.

3. Some insiders are convinced that Castro learned enough at least to believe the CIA was seeking to kill him. With characteristic fury, he is reported to have cooked up a' counterplot against President Kennedy.

4. Shortly after Kennedy was gunned down, the FBI handed President Johnson a memo reporting that Cuban leaders had hoped for Kennedy's death. The President showed it to Kennedy's top aide. Ted Sorensen, who thought the details were so ambiguous, that he called the memo "meaningless."

5. It is also known, of course, that Lee Oswald, the accused assassin, was active in the pro-Castro movement and traveled to Mexico seeking a Cuban visa a few weeks before the dreadful day in Dallas.

SOME SOURCES consider Robert Kennedy's behavior after the assassination to be significant. He seemed to be tormental, they say, by more than the natural grief those tragic days. But others had a different impression.

McGeorge Bundy, then a top White House aide, told a colleague that he was "worried about Bobby," that "Bobby was rejuctant to face the by was reluctant to face the new reality," that he had "virtually to drag Bobby" into President Johnson's first cabinet meeting.

Four weeks after the tragedy, into column was told, Bobby was morose and refused to see people. Could be have been plagued by the terrible thought that terrible thought that he had: helped put into motion forces that indirectly may have brought about his brother's martyrdom? Some insidera

Note: Those who may be shocked that the CIA would consider stooping to a political assassination should be reminded of the ugly nature of what Secretary of State:
Dean Rusk has called "the back-alley struggle."

HE HAS DESCRIBED IL 25 over the murder of his tatusple going on in the back alleys all over the horother.

Author William Manchester, world a never ending war no quarter asked by from Kennedy-controlled and none given. It's unpleasant, and no one likes it, but that is not a field which had a different impression "a tough struggle going on in other side."

The blunt truth is that the subterranean world of espionage is harsh almost beyond relief. There have been times that the CIA has been forced to resort to the most extreme measures to protect the national security.

Some of the CIA's best operatives also have suddenly a n d mysteriously disappeared. No word will be heard of them for months, then a few grim details will leak out. "We will learn that these people have been subjected to the most skillful most fiendish tortures that man can possibly devise and that they have been reduced to animals or vegetables," Clark Clifford. head of the President's Foreign Intelligence Committee, told this column. "When they no longer can really be called men and when all possible information has been extracted from them, then they are disposed of. It is not a pretty picture, but that is the way the game is played."

We also play rough. The New York Times, in an ex-haustive report on the CIA, quoted "one of the best-informed men in Washington on this subject" as saying: "When we catch one of them (A Soviet or other agent), it becomes necessary to get everything out of them, and we do it with no holds
