

Harold Weisberg
Route 8, Frederick, Md. 21701
May 9, 1968

Dear Oreste,

First, here are some match covers I have saved for your friend, different than those I have already given you.

I have finished going over the interview. There are more things of possible importance in it and a few I have thought of. Please, when you can, make notes on your wife was an addict, when and how you first met her (was it after your testimony, after your dispute with the FBI or Bringuier, etc'), and any connections you think she had or may have had with people you know or believe are federal people.

You mentioned the name of Jose Tarafa and said he is with the government. Could this have been Jorge Tarafa, nickname Tarafita, and I misunderstood you? If so, aside from his involvement at the Bay of Pigs (where he was rescued at sea floating on a piece of wood) what evidence do you have that he is working for or with the government?

You mentioned a name I cannot quite make out. It seems like it may be Delvaya Alchom or Alchon. He is an importer and an exporter. Can you give me the correct name, that of his business, whether he lives in Jefferson (or did in 1963) and has a son who might now be about 20 or so, and the names of his family?

Remember the seaman from Dallas, 'Gutierrez'. If you can do it, please take the book with his signature to Louis Ivon and ask him to Xerox it, unless, without attracting attention to yourself, you can get it Xeroxed. If you see Louis, ask him to show you the pictures taken by the Dallas Photographer Allen and tell me if you recognize any of the faces. This is a picture of some men being arrested outside the Texas School Book Depository Building. Tell Louis that Gutierrez also told you he had been called in and questioned about the assassination by the government. I will send him a copy of this letter, so he will expect to hear from you. Please speak to him alone if you go to the office, and if you call first, as you should, because he is very busy, just say you'd like to see him.

On your wife, did any of the customs-house people seem to pay special attention to her? Anyone in connection with her habit?

Can you think of any details, descriptions or possibly names of the younger people who went to Bringuier's, who were not his customers? Were any of these Ferrie's?

I do hope this trip to get to do more of the things you wanted. Please believe me the only reason I didn't last time was a very good one. I have paid close attention to your suspicions, beliefs and suggestions and I am satisfied that your mind is taking you in the right direction, and me with it.

Did you ever see anything of an agent named Logan? One with this name translated for Evvie and, I think, your brother? One named Richard Kenney?

Looking forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg