Dear Crestes,

Here are two more pages from the suppressed files for your file and for your information. Please excuse the scraps of the special paper the copying machine uses, but I am almost out of it and cannot now afford to buy another supply. It is expensive.

At this moment I am very tired, so my memory is not as good as it could be. However, it is in my mind that one of their interests, besides what Liebeler questioned you about, was your picture.

Rice spelled Liebeler's name wrong.

The first name of the second agent is Adrian.

I don't think you ever told me about being interviewed by the Secret Service, only the FBI.

I will hold off mailing this to see if I can remember what now is unclear in my mind, partly because it sometimes takes so long before I get some of these things and my mind gets turned to other things.

On another question, because you know so many people in your business, do you know one Eric Trunbach? He was tending bar at Lafitte's in Exile at the time JFK was killed. Do you know any dependable people who went there at that time? I believe Trunbach has since worked at other places, including the Old Ansinthe House.

I hope you are well and prospering and that your daughter is making you proud with her work in school.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg
