

Dave Perry
4601 Ainsworth Circle
Grapevine, TX 76051

7/29/92

Dear Dave,

Hasty thanks for your 7/26 and interesting enclosures.

What you say about Lil is quite true and there is much much more of which people know so little! Without her I'd not have been able to do what I've done.

Read the dedication of my first book and then recall that no other book has any dedication. I dedicated it all to her.

The Matsu contract at least is honest. It says the story was to be "created!"

I may have been responsible for Jim Casar filing that FOIA request. Kevin Walsh had spoken to me, told him the whole thing as made up and suggested filing a FOIA request of the FBI. Going farther was natural enough.

But did anybody ask the FBI?

Lil and I felt that Nikki seemed to be a bit timid about the food at Hana's and we are sorry because there is nothing farout in anything on the menu.

We were there for lunch and brought supper home so Lil won't have that work to do, convenient when shopping and running errands at lunch time to have such a place.

We usually go there Saturday evenings and this time we are also going on Sunday, to ~~not~~ celebrate Monday's cause for celebration then because they are closed Mondays.

It will be our 50th wedding anniversary. It'll be quiet, too. And relished!

I was up at the Johns Hopkins research campus yesterday for the sleep-disturbance consultation previously scheduled. The doctor has made my life tougher and reduced the time I have for work by ordering me to stay awake until at least 10 p.m. no matter what time I get up and to take no naps. So I went to bed last night three hours later and got up the usual too early this morning. He thinks that will get me back to a regular sleeping schedule. I'll do as he says, but without confidence in its success. and no work after supper, either. Plus being too tired today.

I'm glad you and Nikki finally made it! I wish there were another visit soon, when you won't spend all the time trying to fix the FV/VCR. We got a new one and need a new aerial to be here next week. The one we had is being repaired and I'm giving it to the newly-married son of a friend who can't afford a second outfit for the bedroom.

I'm enclosing two copies of a letter I was surprised to see published in the Hoonie paper. They were in today's mail. Maybe Gary or someone would like the second copy.

Thanks and our best to you both,

Harold