Dear Dave,

I understood the PW story to say that Posner is not doing a book on the critics but is proving that LHO was all alone based on the Zapruder film.

You describe what he told me he was going to do. How does that reconcile with what PW said the book is about?

I'd heard Groden's is to be a coffee-table book.

Unfortunately, all the supposed experts who go public are not always well informed, if informed at all.

Some do not care as long as they get the attention.

It is too late now but I think the ~~w~~rong approach was made in those letters and more in the appearances relating to those fragments.

You have Livingsstone sized up correctly. I think of him as Killer of Truth.

Not that truth and some of his likely targets are related in any way.

I was surprised that he returned to Dallas two months after his ms. was due and again saw Mary.

No reason to believe the visit was social and none to believe that he wanted to apologize or give her a present in repentance.

Or that he was honest about his purpose.

With that title and puffery we are all his targets so he can make himself out to be The Only One, the expert of experts, etc.

Thanks and best wishes,
