Dear Greg,

Time presses and I have little for correspondence that does not advance my work. Hepburnnis Herve Lemarre, who claims to have had a thing on her, hence j'aime Hepburn. That books is 100% crap. As true of most of Sprague's writing in Computers. No assassins are known, no so-called co-ordinating committee is known nor are any members. This is the sickest kind of wild imagining. No confessions exist (Hicks is insane). You confuse well-mean nuts and "critics". I still have nothing to do with CTIA, but am working with the head, personally (though he leaks my stuff to Sprague). I know of no substantial material any single member has turned up and almost all are plagiarists. I have done an enormous book on all three assassinations, now being edited down to one on King's only. LAFree Press also publishes on this subject only what overflows toilets. I have written four books since 0 in NO and can't ~~xxxx~~ get them printed, but I expect publication of the King/Day one by a new, small publisher. I've many more researched. I know of no book in the next year worth reading.

Please excuse haste, and you'll find my above estimates solid, when you are in a position to judge.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I just don't know really where to start there are just so many questions I would like to ask you. However given your time limitations, I will limit myself to a few questions I hope you might have time to answer.

- ① Are the names and locations of the members of the assassination team in Dealey Plaza known to the critics? Are most still living?
- ② Are the names and locations of the major coordinators of the plot known to the critics? Are most still living?
- ③ Who is the real James Helpern? (Author Journal America) Is it a team effort, if so, who are involved?
- ④ What do you think of the reliability of the book regarding the many hints that the "Committee" to assassinate the President met at certain places on given dates, etc. Does this critic have evidence to back up these statements? For example, book said Clay Shaw just an intermediate for the "Committee" to contact Terrie, Oswald etc. If so, why haven't these "facts" been given to reliable senators such as McGovern, Hughes, especially in light of RFK and King assassinations and that evidence?
- ⑤ You were not very enthusiastic about the National Committee to Investigate Assassinations. Have you seen evidence that things are looking up regarding this action group?
- ⑥ Have any critics published material concerning JFK, RFK and Martin King since the Shaw trial other than Spengler's articles in "Computers and Automation" and Los Angeles Free Press? If so, where might I obtain these?
- ⑦ If you are going to be at any meetings in Phila. - Wilmington area this year, your welcome to stay at my place if convenient to you.
- ⑧ What books in the last year do you feel are must reading concerning the assassinations?
- ⑨ Have you written anything since Oswald in N.O. and answer to Epstein in Md. Mirror that I may obtain?

Good luck,
Greg Pierce
