SPIRITUALIST MINISTER TELLS ABOUT... The Psychic Pow

by ANDREW GORDON

Imagine a world where the Vietnam War was never more than a local skirmish; where a world government reigns over peaceful and contented people; where medical science has found a cure for the ravages of cancer; where public housing is available for all who need it; where social security and wages are well ahead of a stable cost of living.

"That is what John F. Kennedy saw for all of us, and he would have carried those plans through, by the use of his psychic powers," states a prominent Spiritualist minister from San Francisco. "JFK was totally psychic and was constantly using his inner powers to guide America.

an earlier and a start of the second s

"Looking at his life we can see incident after incident where he used his psychic abilities and God-given talents to aid himself and steer the ship of state on a safe, victorious and calm course."

Reverend Joseph J. Pinker-, ton, minister of the California Church of Inner Power, says he always knew that JFK was psychic, and his beliefs were confirmed when he discovered that the president was alleged to have visited several famous mediums and psychics in California around the time of the Cuban missile crisis.

the Cuban missile crisis. "We now know that John F. Kennedy was using his psychic powers to double-think the Russians," Rev. Pinkerton said. "He sought advice from others to confirm that his ESP abilities were true and clear.

were true and clear. "Madge Wallace — a medium who died only last year — told me that JFK came to her in the greatest secrecy and confided hisi psychic impressions. She said she was startled at the clarity of his vision, and was awed to find that he was far more accurate than she was when it came to predicting the future."

By knowing exactly what the Red commanders were thinking, JFK was able to guide the country around what some politicians saw at the time to be outright war. Yet Kennedy was supremely confident that the Russians would back down and withdraw their missiles from Cuba. History has shown him to have been correct in his beliefs.

Rev. Pinkerton believes that Kennedy's psychic abilities were first tried in earnest in August 1942, when a Japanese destroyer rammed the motor torpedo boat which Kennedy was commanding was commanding. "Despite spinal injuries, Kennedy swam more than three miles across the Pacific, with other survivors," Rev. Pinkerton said. "His ESP led them to a small uninhabited island.

"By a strange coincidence, a party of friendly natives found the survivors a few days later. I think that Kennedy used his amazing mind powers to 'call' the natives to their rescue."

Page 12 MIDNIGHT January 22, 1973

11

Researchers working with Rev. Pinkerton have inves-tigated many angles of JFK's abilities, and all have come up with the same answer.

"Just as Peter Hurkos became psychic after being dropped on his head as a child, so John Kennedy's powers came to full strength following his spinal injuries," said a psychologist. "The spine is associated with psychic powers, and mystics seek long and hard to 'raise the kundalini' — the 'sleeping serpent' of psychic power at the base of the spine.

"Kennedy's injuries, and the subsequent operations he under-went in 1954, brought his inner abilities to full flower."

Yet even before the fateful year of 1954, when two dangerous operations confined Ken-nedy to bed for six months, the young president's powers were amply confirmed.

His ability to enlist thousands of volunteers to his side in 1952 when he was running against Senator Cabot Lodge for his seat in the senate, shows he had

McGIVERN'S FARLEY church has attributed 107 miracles to JFK powers which the average man does not have.

Kennedy also had sufficient power to shape and alter the future. Famous psychics forecast his presidential defeat when he was running against Nixon in 1960.

Even the phenomenal Jeane Dixon was wrong in her psychic vision. Ruth Montgomery, in her book about Dixon, "A Gift of Prophecy", writes: "Jeane said that John F. Kennedy would not be elected the following November (1960)."

In August 1960, Jeane Dixon still stayed with her forecast, with minor reservations.

Ruth Montgomery quotes. Jeane as writing: "The symbol of the presidency is directly over the head of Vice-President Nixon, but a small old-fashioned scale behind Nixon in the crystal. ball can be interpreted two ways: that justice will prevail under divine guidance for Nixon or else... it means that unless the Republican party really goes out and puts forth every effort it will be toppled."

Ruth Montgomery also relates that in November, a few days before the election, Jeane saw that "changes were occurring in the presidential scene." Dixon had seen "little feelers, like snakes" crawling in her crystal ball.

She interpreted that to mean She interpreted that to mean that "Democratic intrigue in five separate polling areas will rob Nixon of his rightful victory." The results of the election are now history — Kennedy defeated Nixon by a narrow meaning with alection front margin, with election fraud being charged in several precincts.

"That was not intrigue which Jeane saw," Rev. Pinkerton said. "That was JFK's own psychic powers swinging the public to vote for him.

"I am sure if there had been a breath of fraud, Nixon would have demanded recounts which he did not."

JEANE DIXON'S forecast was reversed by JFK's wonderful powers of ESP

REVEREND PINKERTON always knew JFK was a psychic

Before his psychic power could swing into top gear, JFK fell to Oswald's bullet. Yet since his tragic death, the influ-ence of JFK's spirit has amply confirmed his powers, operat-ing from the other side of the Ing from the one-state grave, "Farley McGivern's Kennedy Memorial Church has attested evidence to 107, miracle cures performed by the dead presi-dent," Rev. Pinkerton said. "IFK's ghost has been seen "JFK's ghost has been seen walking in the White House, and I like to believe that he is still exerting his powers on the government."

Rev. Pinkerton firmly believes that JFK would have wound down the Vietnam War long before it escalated into out-the Dallas assassination interrupted that work.

JFK WAS using his psychic powers to "double-think the Russians"

rupted that work. "But we can watch how things are smoothing out, now that JFK is perfecting his influence from the Other Side." Rev. Pinkerton suggests that in his book, "Profiles of Cour-age", JFK was illustrating how psychic powers can be used to psychic powers can be used to affect world history. "The defence budget would

"The defence budget would have been re-allocated to medi-cal research, public housing and welfare," Rev. Pinkerton said. "It would not have been long before JFK impressed his visions on all political leaders, and brought about a world govern-ment.

ment. "We could have looked forwe could nave looked for-ward to an era of peace and pros-perity, with JFK's psychic tal-ents guiding us. Oswald dealt the world a shattering blow on that right carnage. "He had the mental powers to impose his will on the Far Eastern leaders," he said, "but rainy day in Dallas."

yn a ethan ae the genered