

Dear Karen,

Sable

2/16/96

Thanks for sending me Bob Hoover's Pittsburgh Post-Gazette article. Which he did not send me.

He was here about six months ago. He phoned first and then got permission to do a story about me, not about NEVER AGAIN! then just out. He'd apparently read some of my work because he said he wanted to persuade me I was wrong on the media. I think he now knows better!

And I think it is his embarrassment that kept him from sending me a copy.

The picture of me was taken by his photographer. Who used three or more rolls of film.

He did know in advance that they'd not use a review of my book or books.

He no doubt intended well.

And learned a little.

While he does not say I'm paranoid the thrust of the story is that everybody is.

In this sense it supports the official assassination mythology.

and that is probably what after so long a time ^a made it acceptable.

It had been so long I'd forgotten about it.

This is hardly the weather for flying!

But we do hope that with decent weather you can make it.

Thanks and best to you all,

Harold -

I was having my coffee
& reading the paper Sunday morning, & there you were!

A pleasant surprise.

Anyway, thought I'd send this along to you in case you haven't received it yet, or could use another copy.

I'm still hoping to fly down to Frederick when the weather gets better -

Meanwhile, take care.

Love,

Karen
