Fopkin has been all over CBS with his current insanities. I learned from Martin Phillips of the JFK team that 60 Minutes, havinf declined to do anythigg with Fopkin, was pressing the special staff to use Fopkin and his material

Pretty crazy. Wirhtless for 60^Minutes but worthwhile for a half-hour show that is to cover the whole subject.

If the 60 Minites people for a minute believed any part of Fopkin's fairy tales could it be imagined that they would not air it?

CBS checked with Philippines authorities and received what it regarded as refutation of the Castillo part.
