duced to Mrs. Odio as "Leon Oswald," and she was told that he was yery much interested in the Cuban cause, "" Mrs. Odio said that the men told her that they had just come from New Orleans and that they were then about to leave on a trip, " Mrs. Odio testified that the next day Leopoldo called her on the telephone and told her that it was his idea to introduce the American into the underground "because he is great, he is kind of muts," " Leopoldo also said that the American had been in the Marine Corps and was an excellent shot, and that the American said the Cubans "don't have any guts " because President Kennedy should have been assassinated after the Bay of Pigs, and some Cubans should have done that, because he was the one that was holding the freedom of Cuba actually." ¹³⁶

Although Mrs. Odio suggested doubts that the men were in fact members of JURE, ⁷¹⁷ she is certain that the American who was introduced to her as Leon Oswald was Lee Harvey Oswald. ⁷¹⁸ Her sister, who was in the apartment at the time of the stagest visit by the three men, and separately aw them briefly in the hallway when answering the door, also believed that the American was Lee Harvey Oswald. ⁷¹⁰ By referring to the date on which she moved from her former apartment, October 1, 1963, Mrs. Odio fixed the date of the alleged visit on the Thursday or Friday immediately preceding that date, i.e., September 26 or 27. She was positive that the visit occurred prior to

October 1.720

It is clear, however, that Oswald could not have been in Dallas on the evening of either September 20 or 27, 1963, and here is considerable evidence that he was not in Dallas anytime between the beginning of September and October 3, 1963. On April 24, Oswald left Dallas for New Orleans, where he lived until his tip to Mexico Citz in late September and his subsequent return to Dallas. As previously set forth, Oswald is known to have been in New Orleans at late as September 23, 1963, the date on which Mrs. Paine and Marina Oswald left New Orleans for Dallas. Sometime between 1 p.m. on September 24 and 1 p.m. on September 25, Oswald cashed an unemployment compensation check at a store in New Orleans: 122 under normal procedures this check would not have reached Oswald's postal box in New Orleans until at least 5 a.m. on September 25, 723 and the store at which he cashed the chock did not open until 8 a.m., 211. Therefore, Oswald's presence in New Orleans until sametime between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. on September 25 seems well established.

There is no firm evidence of the means by which Oswald raveled from New Orleans to Touston, on the first leg of his Mexic City trip, but a Continental Trailways bus leaving New Orleans at 12:30 p.m. on September 25 would have brought Oswald to Houston at 10:50 p.m. that evening 125 and his presence on this bus would be consistent with other evidence before the Commission. There is evidence, however, that at 2:35 a.m. on September 26, Oswald boarded Continental Trailways bus No. 5133 in Houston and traveled on this bus to Laredo, Tex. Bus company yeords disclose that one ticket from Houston to Laredowas sold during the night shift on September 25-26, which was the
