

(continued from front flap)

narrative that restores the human drama to one of the watershed events in American history, and in the process answers the riddle of how and why Lee Harvey Oswald killed JFK.

"This book really does close the case. There can now be no doubt that Lee Harvey Oswald alone killed President Kennedy. Posner looks hard at all the evidence and, for the first time ever, presents an account of the Kennedy assassination devoid of speculation. His reporting meets the highest standards, and his logic is breathtaking. Case Closed is a great achievement in contemporary journalism."

— FREDRIC DANNEN, author of Hit Men

PHOTO: BOHUSLAV KAPOSH

GERALD POSNER, a former Wall Street lawyer, is the co-author of Mengele: The Complete Story (1986), critically acclaimed as the definitive biography of the "Angel of Death." His other books include a 1988 exposé of the heroin trade (Warlords of Crime: Chinese Secret Societies—The New Mafia), a 1989 novel (The Bio-Assassins), and, in 1991, a collection of interviews with children of Nazi officials (Hitler's Children). Mr. Posner's articles have appeared in numerous magazines and newspapers, including The New York Times and the Chicago Tribune. He lives in New York City with his wife, Trisha.

Front-of-jacket photos: President Kennedy, UPI/Bettmann;
Oswald, AP/Wide World Photos
Spine photo: The National Archives
Jacket design: Andy Carpenter

Random House, Inc.
New York, N.Y. 10022
Printed in U.S.A. 9/93
©1993 Random House, Inc.

