Dear Mr. Zuckerman:

I think you might be interested in the results of a one-month seminar I conducted this past January focusing on Gerald Posner's Case Closed, to which you devoted a special double issue of U.S. News and World Report (Aug. 30, 1993). Enclosed you will find a brief write-up describing this seminar and a copy of the letter I sent to Mr. Posner. For your interest, Mr. Posner will also be receiving a collection of my student's papers, along with some documentary support, totalling over 5150 pages.

I believe you did your magazine and the American people a great disservice by featuring perhaps the most flawed and fraudulent book in the whole 30-year history of this controversy.

Sincerely,

Dr. Gerald Ginocchio
