Mr. John H. Holloman III, Chief Counsel
Senate Judiciary Committee

Dear Mr. Holloman,

Western Union read your telegram to me from Baltimore over the phone today. I presume it is in response to my letter of the first.

I had been working on my statement and although today is a Sunday I will be delivering it with this letter tomorrow. I regret that my limited facilities do not permit providing a separate copy of the statement and attached exhibits for each member of the Committee.

Because my purposes are not publicity or any attracting of attention to myself, it is immaterial to me whether or not the Committee wants me to appear in person. My intent is for the Committee to be aware of what is in the statement and for it to be considered as part of the record of its consideration of Mr. Powell.

Should you desire anything further from me, I do not expect to be away from home for more than an hour or two at a time for the rest of the week.

When your Committee prints its hearings and report on both nominees, I would appreciate a copy of each.

I am aware of the Committee's anxiety to perform its function, and I do appreciate your taking the time to wire me on a Sunday.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
