Los Angeles Reporter Farr Gets New Jail Sentence for Contempt

LOS ANGELES, July 29 right to hold himself shore witness in the prince in the law, a Superior Court the time a reporter for the surface of his lawyer, Farr the law sentenced Los Angeles Examiner, wrote given him the material. Farr as sort to five days in fail and fined him, $500 as punishment tim quotes.

T. Farr to five days in fail and scripts using expensive verua-fined him, $500 as punishment tim quotes; for contempt of the judge's or der to reveal his sources.

"This is the maximum sentence the court can give." Superior Court Judge Charles H. fair trial.

Older told Farra Older said the would have made the sentence after the court to Manson and his followers in the 46 days in confinement for his had violated his pag order by today's ruling.

refusal to tell Older who gave releasing the transcript used him the transcript of testi-by Farr. Farr refused to re-

Older told Farra liber said he would have made the sentence after the conviction of Manson after the conviction of Manson and his followers in the Douglas freed him.

The same was dropped until 46 days in jail until Supreme and his followers in the Douglas freed him.

Outside the courtroom, Farr the days in confinement for his had violated his and order to know who told reporters he would appeal to the courtroom of the courtroo

After he had refused once more to tell Older which lawmore to tell Older which law-yers provided him with the testimony, the judge ordered Farr to county jail for an indefinite sentence. Farr spent