Sen. Ervin Prods White House On Probe of Network Reporter By Ken W. Clawson

Washington Post Staff Writer

Sen. Sam J. Ervin yesterday asked President Nixon to join him in obtaining full disclosure of the reasons the White House ordered an FBI investigat on of CBS correspondent Daniel Schorr. 3.0%

Ervin, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on constitutional rights, said in a letter to Mr. Nixon that he was inviting Schorr and top White House aides to hearings in January on the state of freedom of the press in the nation.

The North Carolina Demoalso urged the President to conduct his own inquiry into the White House-instigated probe of Schorr, which came during one of a series of dis-putes between Schorr and the fears, which may arise from

SEN. ERVIN seeks press freedom

President. "First Amendment freedoms can be stilled by intimidation and suggestion from those who have official power just as surely as they can by direct curtailment."

The White House has contended there was no intent to intimidate Schorr by the investigation, which officials said was routinely ordered because Schorr was being considered for a position "in the environmental area" with the administration,

Schorr himself was never informed that he was under con-sideration for a job. The White House thus far has refused to specify exactly what a post it had in mind. Officials have said, however, that their future plans no longer include Schorr

President Nixon was not "I am deeply concerned over the alleged investigation of the fears, even unwarranted Mr. Schorr," Ervin wrote the See SCHORR, A6, Col. 1 11

Ervin Prods President On TV Reporter Probe

SCHORR, From A1

but White House press secrebut White House press secre-tary Ronald L. Ziegler said because it was from Malek's afterward that Mr. Nixon felt office that the request for an EDU transmission of Schwarz (Schwarz) has ordered changes in White House talent hunt procedures, Schorr's reports Such criti-Ziegler said.

Ziegler added that the President agreed that a person should be told he was under should be told he was under unsuccessfully for some time consideration for an appoint- to get Klein to testify on the

"Therefore," Ziegler said, "the President has ordered his letter to the President. that whenever anyone is con-sidered for a government job he always be informed before head why a customary WBI hand why a customary FBI press to the National Newspa-check is being made ... No per Association in New Or-intimidation was intended in leans. this case and there never had In the speech. Ervin said been, never will be while the that "like all freedom, free-House.

Ervin told the President he was inviting Frederic V. eternal vigilance, and an in-Malek, White House talent cresing readines o guard and scout; Charles W. Colson, Mr. and defend them." scout; Charles W. Colson, Mr. and defend them. Nixon's special counsel, and White House communications tal actions that he said director Herbert G. Klein to threatened First Amendment his freedom of press hearings, freedoms. These included, ac-which have been held over the the Army to sny on civilian poena" the reluctant Presiden-would undoubtedly elecit a protest from the chairman.

the whole matter "was han. He whole matter "was han. He whole matter "was han. He minated. Colson has comp-lained to CBS vice chairman Frank Stanton about the fair-Schorr's reports. Such criticism had been requested by Stanton.

The senato has been trying, ment before federal agents in-vestigated him. "Therefore," Ziegler said,

House. A state of the white dom of speech and of the press are always in peril; and the price of their keeping is ast several months. In an interview with Asso-dissenters; government's atclated Press, Ervin said if his tempt to enjoin publication of invitations are not accepted the Pentagon papers; a House his subcommittee "could sub- committee's effort to require boena" the reluctant Presiden-tial aides. Initial reaction to Ervin's gram, "The Selling of the sources was that the adminis-tration would invoke execu-tive privilege. This would fidential source of informa-deny Ervin his witnesses, but tion.

And the second second