C.I.A.AND F.B.I.HAD A POLICY ON LYING

Hid Identities of Agents, Allen Dulles Said in '64

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP)

The late Director of Central Intelligence, Allen W. Dulles, told the Warren Commission I that the F.B.I. and C.I.A. disectors might lie to anyone but the President to conceal identities of their undercover agents, according to recently declassified documents.

The documents are quoted in a book being published today about the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination. I The book, entitled "Whitewash in IV," is by Harold Weisberg, a Frederick, Md., writer and inacceptance.

. Mr. Weisberg lost a suit against the Government seeking release of the documents. However, the National Archives declassified the information and sent him copies.

Mr. Dulles, a member of the Warren Commission, who died in 1969, stook part in a discussion Jan. 27, 1964, about whe ther J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and John A. McCone, director of Central Intelligence, would truthfully answer questions on whether Lee Harvey of Cowald had ever worked for either of their agencies.

The documents declassified included a verbatim transcript t of that executive session of the commission.

"I think under any circumstances, "I think Mr." Hoover I would say certainly he didn't have anything to do with this s fellow," said Mr. Dulles, who was no longer C.I.A. director at the time.

The book also quotes Mr.
Dulles as saying: "I would tell the President of the United States anything, yes, I am under his control. I wouldn't necor essarily tell anybody else, unn less the President authorized o- me to do it."

te At one point in the discussion the book quotes the late Senator Riciard B. Russell as saying to Mr. Dulles: "If Oswald never had assassinated the President, or at least been charged with assassinating the President the F.B.I. and somebody had gone to the F.B.I., they would have denied he was an agent."

m Mr. Dulles responded: "Oh, yes."

nt Mr. Russell, Democrat of Georgia, then said: "They would be the first to deny it. Your agents would have done exactly the same thing."

Mr. Dulles said: "Exactly."

Mr. Hoover told the commission when he was questioned on May 14, 1964:

"I can most emphatically say that at no time was he [Oswald] ever an employe of the bureau in any capacity, either as an agent or as a special employe or as an informant."

s ploye, or as an informant."

Mr. McCone was asked by the committee's general counsel, J. Lee Rankin, whether Mr. Oso wald "had any connection with the C.I.A., informer, or indirectly as an employe, or any other of capacity?"

l Mr. McCone replied: "I have s determined to my satisfaction that he had no such connection."
