Policy on C.I.A. and F.B.I. Lies-Described by Allen Dulles in '64

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP) States anything, yes, I am unThe late Director of Central der his control. I wouldn't neIntelligence, Allen W. Dulles, cessarily tell anybody else, untold the Warren Commission that the F.B.I. and C.I.A. direcme to do it."

At one point in the discussion

writer and investigator.

White Mark Standard St

Mr. Hoover told the commission when he was questioned on May 14, 1964:

Warren Commission, who died "I can most emphatically say in 1969, took part in a discussion Jan. 27, 1964, about whether J. Edgar Hoover. directors of the rederal Bureau of fives-tigation, and John A. McCone, ploye, or as an informant."

director of the Central Intelligence Agency, would truthfully answer questions on whether Lee Rankin, whether Mr. Os-Lee Harvey Oswald had ever wald "Had any connection with worked for either of their agen-

The documents declassified included a verbatim transcript of that executive session of the commission.

"I think under any circum-stances, I think Mr. Hoover would say certainly he didn't have anything to do with this fellow," said Mr. Dulles, who president to conceal identities of their undercover agents, actor Riciard B. Russell as saying cording to recently declassified to Mr. Dulles: "If Oswald never had assassinated the President and had been in the employ of a book being published today about the investigation of President John F. Kennedy's assassination. The book entitled Mr. Dulles responded: "Oh."

writer and investigator.

Mr. Russell, Democrat of Georgia, then said: "They Mr. Weisberg lost a suit would be the first to deny it. against the Government seeking release of the documents. However, the National Archives Mr. Dulles said: "Exactly."

ther J. Edgar Hoover, director bureau in any capacity, either of the Federal Bureau of Inves- as an agent or as a special em-the C.I.A., informer, or indirectly as an employe, of any other capacity?"

Mr. McCone replied: "I have determined to my satisfaction that he had no such connec-tion."

2nd Guessing Themselves SALEM, Ore. (UPI)-During was no longer C.I.A. director at Legislature, the House of Repthetime.

The book also quotes Mr. lier vetes on bills 219 times, Daller to styring: I would tall while the Senate reconsidered the Louisdant, of the United 89 votes. the 1973 session of the Oregon