Dear Erwin Knoll,

Please cancel the mailing of the magazine to me, no refund, and take me off all mailing lists. I refuse to be offended any more by your campaign for a new Holocaust, however else you think of it.

Of all the dishonest journalism I can recall I recall none as determinedly one-sided as this. Certainly not any one more one-sided.

Those of your readers who get their news of that troubled area from you alone have not the remotest idea of what the issues and the problems there are.

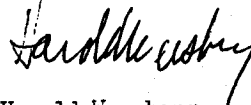

There is an unintended honesty in the cover comparison with Versailles.

I have never been a practicing Jew so that is not a factor.

My wife, who is not Jewish, agrees with my decision.

She added <sup>the</sup> comment that the only thing she will really miss is Molly Ivins.

With sincere regrets,

Harold Weusberg
