

Harold Weisberg
Hyattstown, Md. 20734
July 20, 1966

Editor, Publishers' Weekly
1180 Avenue of the Americas
New York, N.Y. 10036

Dear Sir,

The enclosed press release is, I hope self explanatory. If you have European subscribers, you may be interested in knowing that the book is represented there by Gordon Harbord, 55 St. Martin's Lane, London W.C. 2.

We continue to get orders from people who have had difficulty locating us and who report their bookstores have no listing. Some of the many bookstores from whom we have gotten orders report the same problem. Accordingly, I would like to arrange a listing in your quarterly, which I understand is now being prepared for the fall season. Would you please tell me what is required?

May I also thank you for your previous note. Through it we received a number of inquiries from libraries who wrote Merkle Press. The notice did not include our address, which is complete above.

The inquiry from Arribe was on their initiative and came as a pleasant surprise to me. It does reflect the wide distribution Whitewash has attained and the interest in its contents.

Again, thank you for your courtesy.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg

Ebc.-1