

4/19/68

Dear Mrs. Prakken,

Of course, you should know. Perhaps it is for another of your indexes that I sent in a listing.

If you would be kind enough to tell me the cost, the listing I would want is simple, and if you list under titles, I'd prefer that. In fact, if you do not list under titles, I doubt it would do me much good. I hope from now on not to have to be my own publisher.

My two books are:

WHITEWASH: THE REPORT ON THE WARREN REPORT $4.95
WHITEWASH II; THE FBI-SECRET SERVICE COVERUP $4.95.

I would list under my name. My entire address is Hyattstown, Md. Nobody ever heard of God's Or Press.

Could you please forward the enclosed release to the proper person at Publishers' Weekly? Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I have your return letter concerning Whitewash: The report on the Warren report as well as Whitewash II. Neither of these books have received a listing in Books In Print and Subject Guide, although we think it would be to your advantage to have them entered here.

Books In Print and Subject Guide index the books listed in Publishers Trade List Annual, and since you did not have a reservation last year in Publishers Trade List Annual, your titles were not indexed in Books In Print and Subject Guide. I am enclosing a reservation form and sample page for your convenience. I hope to hear from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Sarah L. Prakken, compiler

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

We have received your return card of March 17 with your note that you should be listed in Books In Print, and suggest that the papers are lost.

The offices in which the Publishers' Trade List Annual is compiled have been changed and, although I have had some of the records transferred, we do not find any record of a reservation having been made by you for a listing in Publishers' Trade List Annual.

Books In Print and Subject Guide are indexes by author and title and subject of the lists and catalogs included in the Publishers' Trade List Annual.

You may have had your titles listed in other Bowker Publications such as Publishers Weekly or Forthcoming Books without realizing that a listing in one of our publications does not necessarily mean an automatic listing in others.

I am including reservation forms and other information for you. On the other hand, if you did make a reservation for the Publishers' Trade List Annual of 1966 and by some accident your reservation form and your check was lost, please let me know and we will credit you for your entries in the 1967 edition.

Sincerely,
