

Dear Mark Reynolds.

1/8/86

The grapevine misinformed you but you are on our mailing list and will be informed when we publish anything.

All the questions you ask are of the outdated past and all the matters they reflect have been proven to be utterly irrelevant.

Byron Watson, for example, made the whole thing up and got his mother's cooperation in a futile effort to beat a drug rap.

So, there is no Atlanta connection. I know of not that is established in any of the assassinations. Or worth following up.

There never was any McIntire connection, either, although some of the more irresponsible critics have tried to make it appear that there was one. The bad behavior of his west-coast man made this flimflam easier to pull. Bradley. Not a nice guy.

I know of no legitimate connection of the Anti-Communist League. Years ago there were legitimate reasons for asking questions but not with the passing of time. Garrison sure had a chance.

If you've been reading what appeared in the past 15 years and you believe it you will be spinning your wheels because most of it and all that is theoretical is invalid. But attractive and people have believed.

If you intend to follow up on any of the theories you'd be wise to attempt an independent authentication of them first. You won't be able to.

Please don't ask me because I'm older, unwell and don't have enough time as it is.

Best wishes, Hope you have a good year.

Dear Harold,

I hope all is well with you.

I have heard through the grapevine that you have a new book in the works on the Martin Luther King assassination. Please put me on your mailing list ~~for~~ to be notified when you publish - as far as I know I own all you have done.

I'd like to ask you a couple of questions - feel free to answer or not answer as you like - I'm sure your life is full already. But... I had to at least try.

① Have you seen the Robert Byron Watson affidavits and, if so, what do you think of them?

② Can you suggest a list of books or articles that bear on the following subjects?:

(a) Atlanta connections to any of the assassinations.

(b) The Reverend Carl McIntire's role in all of this. (I have Torbitt and Christian/Turner on RFK)

(c) The Anti-Communist League of the Caribbean (I have Oswald in NOCA, Peter Dale Scott's work and Turner in Ramparts).

Have you got any ideas? (over)

I'm hoping to move soon out of a 15 year rut
as a consumer of assassination literature into a producer role. It's about time that I contributed something substantial. Even if, ^{as} it appears, ~~that~~ we all have lost our battle with justice (though I'm not giving up), I think the battle for history (memory) is an important one in itself. I still have hope.

I look forward to hearing from you and to reading your new Opus -

Best Wishes Always

Mark
