I was in New York when you were at "rosinger's. I phoned.

I wrote WOR the same time I wrote you. I've had no roply yet.

There is interest in several publishing houses at the moment and I'm enviously weiting to see how much interest and how expressed. I had a brief interview with Bob Wohlforth, who has been unchanged by the years. He offered to go over any contract I am offered because, as he said, he knows the business. He is printing a book by A.J.Liebling's widew, Jean Stafford. If it is like the lengthy article she had in Good Housekeeping a month ago, it will be a neety business of ridiculing the mother. Its title is "A Mother in History".

geards to Frede and, when she gets home, Nancy, and thanks from us both.

Mr. Harold Weisberg Hyattstown, Maryland 20734

Dear Harold:

This is to acknowledge your note of December 7. I know nothing about the radio program you spoke of. I'm unable to check on the possibility you mention in your letter that the person named Newman who is reported as having said that he is doing a book on the Warren Commission of the assassination may have had access to and made use of your book when it was in the hands of Ivan. Clearly, if there are any close parallels between your material and anything that appears ultimately as a book over the name Newman, there will then be a necessity to check and possibly to use this as a basis for suit against Newman, his publisher and Ivan. Meanwhile, you may want to write to WOR to inquire as to whether any such reference occurred on one of its programs and to ask for a transcript of that portion of the program.

I will be out of town at a civil rights staff meeting from Sunday, December 12 through Wednesday, December 14. I'll be getting back to town the evening of December 14. If you are still in town Wednesday evening, please call me.

Regards to Lil.

Sincerely,

Sol Rabkin
