Dear Sol,

Today I was told that on the all-night yack on WOR a week ago one Al Newman, formerly an editor of Newsweek and supposedly a right-winger, appeared and spoke of a book he is doing on the Warren Commission or the assassination. As I was told it, he is supposed to have said he has sponsorship, involving a leader of the Conservative Party whose first name alone my informant recalled as Kevin.

I have no way of confirming this information as of the moment. The man who told me is a responsible adult who is interested in and knows of my book.

But the possibility that with this political orientation and that of Ivan, who was Buckley's publisher, some of my material that was never returned may have gone astray is one I cannot avoid. I sure would like to know more about the entire thing.

I'm expecting to be in NY the 13 and 14 and will call. You were busy last time so I didn't disturb you by leaving a message. When I called back before I left town you were out.

Regards to all.
