

DAY, DECEMBER 10, 1963-60 PAGES

Daily and St

Assassination Probers Name Rankin Counsel

By MIRIAM OTTENBERG Star Staff Writer

The presidential commission investigating the assassination of the late President Kennedy today named J. Lee Rankin, former Solicitor General of the United States, to serve as the commission's general counsel.

Chef Justice Earl Warren, in announcing the appointment, said the 56-year-old attorney has accepted and "is now in the performance of his duties".

Piece of Oswald's Shirt Found Snagged in Rifle.

The Chief - Justice, who is chairman of the seven-man commission, did not spell out Mr. Rankin's duties but presumably his role will center on has had an opportunity to re-collecting investigative mater- view it," the Chief Justice said. senting it to the commission thereafter be made public." for its evaluation.

is now in the hands of the already held two meetings, commission.

Five Volumes

was delivered to the commis- not been determined. sion late yesterday. He described it as "five volumes of summary and exhibits."

will be made concerning the report until the commission

J. LEE RANKIN

ials from all sources and pre- "A preliminary statement will

It had been assumed that The first investigative report the commission, which would get together again as soon as it receives the bulky FBI report. Chief Justice Chief Justice Warren said "a Warren said, however, that the summary of the FBI report" date of the next meeting has Warren said, however, that the

Wide Experience

Mr. Rankin, a Republican, is "No further announcement now practicing law in New York. He has had wide experi-

See RANKIN, Page A-4

RANKIN

Continued From Page A-1 ence both in private practice and in the Federal service.

Born in Hartington, Nebr. on July 8, 1907, he practiced law in Lincoln. Nebr., from 1931 to 1953. He was one of the first Assistant Attorney Generals selected by Attorney General Herbert Brownell when he took office in January, 1953.

Mr. Rankin, as head of the Justice Department's Office of Legal Counsel, held the key assignment of advising the President on the preparation of proclamations and executive orders.

He was named Solicitor General in 1956, a post in which he represented the Government in all Supreme Court cases involving Federal interests. He returned to private law practice in January, 1961.

During his Justice Department service, he was active in the administration's legal battles for school desegregation and presented the Government's argument in the basic case that led to the Supreme Court ruling against segrega-