DATE: 11/12/68

FROM : ASAC JOSEPH T. SYLVESTER, JR.

SUBJECT: MURKIN

"Look Magazine" dated 11/12/68 contains a story by WILLIAM BRADFORD HUIE in reference to JAMES L. RAY. In instant article RAY allegedly told HUIE he had a contact with a man whom RAY calls RAOUL and he described RAOUL as being a blonde Latin, about 35 and whom RAY took to be a seaman. This contact was made at the Neptune Tavern, 121 West Commissioners Street, Montreal, Canada. According to the article, RAY thought RAOUL might get him a passport or get him work on a ship. The article stated that from 8/8/67 to 8/18/67 RAY stated he talked at least five more times with RAOUL at the Neptune Tavern and that RAOUL did, however, reveal to RAY that he (RAOUL) had spent some of his time in New Orleans and he gave RAY a New Orleans telephone number. This article had no further information concerning RAOUL.

A check of the New Orleans indices revealed the following:

RAOUL, ST. MARIE, female, not identical - [REDACTED]

RAOUL, HENRY (TN), born 1906, not identical - [REDACTED]

RAOUL, BEAUREGARD, Caucasian, born 3/6/27, Stanne Stuckey, Canada [REDACTED] dated 6/53

However, [REDACTED], Bufile [REDACTED], contained information concerning a RAOUL BEAUREGARD, who was a fugitive in 1953 with New Haven as Office of Origin. RAOUL was described as a white male non-citizen; blue eyes; brown hair; slender build; fair complexion; 130 lbs.; 6'6 1/4" tall; burn scar on left forearm; place of birth Stanne, Stuckey, Canada; date of birth 3/6/27. Father and mother JOSEPH and SELINA BEAUREGARD, Eastman Province of Quebec, Canada; wife DORIS BEAUREGARD, 86 Horesplain Road, New Britain, Conn.
