

Weisberg ^{P. 10} Says Gov't. Stalling

Harold Weisberg, of Shookstown, filed suit against the Justice Department yesterday last week, charging that the Department is stalling in the prosecution of the guilty plea of James Earl Ray, the man who pleaded guilty to the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Weisberg has filed suit in the federal court in Washington, D.C., charging that the Justice Department is stalling in the prosecution of the guilty plea of James Earl Ray, the man who pleaded guilty to the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Weisberg believes that Ray did not murder Dr. King, in spite of the guilty plea. Ray is now serving a life sentence.

Weisberg has published several books on the assassination of Dr. King, and is a resident of John P. Kennedy.
