Enclosed for the Bureau is copy of New Scotland Yard report containing all information concerning the activities of subject while in London from 5/7/68 to the date of his apprehension 6/8/68. Also contained in the report is summary of investigation conducted by New Scotland Yard in this matter. This report was officially handed to Assistant Legat on 7/25/68 and it may be disseminated to Tennessee authorities for assistance in preparing their case for prosecution.

Also enclosed for the assistance of Bureau supervisors are three copies of a list of London communications to the Bureau in this matter. These are in the form of cables and airtels, and any information contained therein can now be disseminated to Tennessee authorities with the exception of that in London airtel dated 7/16/68. This airtel enclosed items furnished to this office by New Scotland Yard on a confidential basis, and included letters from subject to various individuals in the U. S., as well as prison warders' reports.
