Mrs. Marina Oswald

Reference is made to your O/M of February 12, 1964, directing that Mohamed Reggab be interviewed at Berlin concerning his alleged association with Mrs. Marina Oswald during the period January 1961 until May 1961.

On February 20, 1964, inquiry at the U.S. Mission, Berlin, disclosed that Reggab first came to the notice of the American Refugee Center on May 18, 1963. Reggab had arrived in April 1963 in Berlin with his wife at which time his wife was five months pregnant. A personal record was taken on Reggab at the Refugee Center which indicated he had previously resided in the Soviet Union. A copy of this personal record was obtained and is herewith attached.

Because of Reggab's prior residence in the Soviet Union, he was debriefed by an official agency at which time he indicated an active dislike for the Soviet way of life. Interviewers were in contact with Reggab shortly after November 27, 1963, when he volunteered information concerning his alleged association with Mrs. Marina Oswald in Moscow during the period January to May 1961. Reggab was interviewed a number of times on these points, as recently as February 1, 1964, when he was given a polygraph examination concerning his alleged association with Mrs. Oswald which indicated deception. The evaluation of this polygraph examination and the tapes were forwarded to the United States about February 3, 1964.

During his frequent contacts with official sources, Reggab indicated that he was burdened with a number of problems, some of them financial or in connection with his ambition for a scholarship, and at least in one instance he sought financial assistance. In the first week of February 1964, he informed his official contacts that he had received word from Casablanca that he had been awarded a full scholarship to study in Berlin, but that he had to return to Casablanca to complete the necessary arrangements. He stated he expected to return to Berlin about March 1, 1964. He planned to depart via railroad to Gibraltar and from there proceed to Tangier. He endeavored to obtain money to underwrite his living expenses and other costs above and beyond his railroad tickets which he had obtained from his family. This request was denied, and at no time was he given any money by any American source. Reggab's wife and child were returning with him to Casablanca.

Prior to his departure, Reggab promised to obtain the letter and photograph of Mrs. Oswald which allegedly were with his possessions at his in-laws in Casablanca. He promised to bring these two items to Berlin when he returned about March 1, 1964.

I made inquiry at Nuernbergstrasse 19, West Berlin, on February 20, 1964, where Reggab had occupied a one-room apartment with his wife and baby. The janitor stated that Reggab had returned to Morocco about two weeks before and had said he was not returning to Berlin.

On February 21, 1964, I had a conversation with an official source who undertook to notify his headquarters, by priority cable, of our interest in this matter with the urgent request that the complete file on Reggab be made available to this service without delay. This will afford an opportunity of coordinating the efforts of the interested agencies, and the members of the President's Commission will be able to make an evaluation and determination if further efforts are desired to locate and interview Reggab on the specific points raised in Mr. Shaffer's memorandum of February 7, 1964.

Enclosed is a photograph of Reggab obtained from official sources in Berlin. Also enclosed is a copy of a newsclipping from the Berlin Tagesspiegel, of an unspecified date in August 1963, which discusses Reggab's hunger strike in Berlin because he was unable to obtain employment or scholarship support.

„Ich will dem Sozialamt nicht zur Last fallen!“

Marokkanisches Ehepaar im Hungerstreik gegen unherzige Bestimmungen

Hungerstreik eines marokkanischen Studenten und seiner hochwangeren Ehefrau: Weil die Berliner Polizei und das Landesarbeitsamt ihm nicht gestatten, sich seinen Lebensunterhalt selbst zu erdienen, verweigerte der 25jährige Marokkaner Mohammed R. in einer Unterkunft in der Tauentzienstraße tagelang die Nahrungsaufnahme. Auch seine 20jährige Ehefrau Fatima, die im September ein Baby erwartet, beteiligte sich eine Zeitlang am Hungerstreik. Erst nachdrückliche Vorhaltungen eines Arztes und mehrerer Freunde konnten das Ehepaar bewegen, die Protestaktion gestern abzubrechen.

„Ich bin gesund und kräftig, und ich kann arbeiten! Ich will nicht dem Sozialamt und den Berliner Steuerzahler zur Last fallen!“ sagte Mohammed R. der „nacht-depêche“. Der junge Marokkaner, der in Berlin Filmtechnik studieren und später in seiner Heimat Kameramann werden will, kann das Verhalten der Ausländerpolizei und des Landesarbeitsamtes nicht verstehen.

Im April dieses Jahres kam Mohammed R. nach Berlin und bewarb sich um Studium an der „Fachschule für Optik und Fototechnik“ in Charlottenburg. Zuvor hatte er nach einjährigem Studium in Paris eine Zwischenprüfung nicht bestanden, so daß sein Stipendium von der marokkanischen Regierung nicht verlängert wurde. Nach eigener Aussage erkundigte er sich daraufhin bei der deutschen und amerikanischen Botschaft nach Studienmöglichkeiten mit Stipendium, erhielt aber Absagen. Die sowjetische Botschaft in Paris jedoch besorgte ihm ein Stipendium an einer Fachschule in Moskau und bezahlte die Flugkosten.

„Schon bald wurde ich von russischen Studenten bespitzelt!“ sagt Mohammed R. „Die regelmäßige, politische Schulung wurde für wichtiger angesehen als das Studium. Auch rein fachlich habe ich Ärger: So wurde in einem Lehrgang ein Foto von mir abgelehnt, nur weil auch eine westliche Zigarettenpackung abgebildet war!“

► Nach zwei Jahren Studium heiratete Mohammed R. bei einem Ferienaufenthalt in seiner Heimat seine Verlobte

Fatima, der jedoch die Einreise nach Moskau verweigert wurde. Daraufhin brach er sein Studium in Moskau ab und absolvierte ein sechsmaliges Praktikum beim marokkanischen Fernsehen.

Ober Paris kam er nach Berlin. Hier verweigerte ihm die Ausländerpolizei die Aufenthaltsgenehmigung, weil er mittellos dem Sozialamt zur Last fallen würde. Bis im Oktober über seine Zulassung zur Fachschule und über ein Stipendium entschieden wird, darf der Student aber ohne Aufenthaltsgenehmigung nicht arbeiten, um seine schwangere Frau und sich zu ernähren!

Sobald Mohammed R. der Polizei seine Studienlassung vorlegen kann, darf er in Berlin bleiben und studieren, aber nicht arbeiten. Wenn er ein Stipendium bekommt, ist alles in Ordnung. Doch bis zur Entscheidung darüber müssen Mohammed R. und seine Frau bis Oktober vom Sozialamt unterstützt werden. Völlig verstört protestierte das Ehepaar mit einem wirkungslosen Hungerstreik gegen die Bestimmungen der Polizei und des Landesarbeitsamtes.

► Doch auch im Interesse der Berliner Steuerzahler sollten endlich die gesetzlichen Voraussetzungen dafür geschaffen werden, daß arbeitswillige Ausländer nicht gewungen werden, von Sozialunterstützung zu leben! —üs-

IM SEPTEMBER KOMMT das Baby, ganz besonders aus diesem Grunde. Frau Fatima zusammen mit ihrem Mann den Hungerstreik aufgegeben. Mohammed Reggab möchte arbeiten, aber er kommt aus dem Teufelskreis von Verordnungen und Bestimmungen nicht heraus.

Kinder erholen sich in Berlin

Auch die Kinder, die in den Ferien nicht verreisen können, sollen sich erholen. Das ist die Devise des Bezirksamtes Neukölln.

In jeder Woche werden die Sechs- bis Achtzehnjährigen mit BVG-Bussen abgeholt und an das Große Fenster im Grunewald gefahren. Unter der Aufsicht von freiwilligen Helfern der Deutschen Lebensrettungsgesellschaft können sich die Kinder, die mit ihren roten Kappen gut zu überwachen sind, im Wasser tummeln.

Ein bißchen weiter, auf der Insel Schwanenwerder, verleben die Sechs- bis Neunjährigen einen vierwöchigen Urlaub. Leider müssen sie jeden Abend wieder nach Hause und jeden Morgen auf die Insel zurückfahren, weil man für die Kinder keine Unterbringungsmöglichkeiten hat.

Im ehemaligen Kurheim Kladt geht es den rund 400 Kleinen (bis sechs Jahre) nicht anders. A sie müssen die tägliche Reise treten, weil auf dem Gelände entsprechende Unterbringungsmöglichkeiten vorhanden sind. Trotz der nicht gerade idealen Umstände, freuen sie sich jeden Tag, wenn es wieder ins Freie geht.

Feuerwehr fing Schlange

Berlin (lbn). Die Feuerwehr fand Dienstagabend auf dem Hof des Hauses Salzburger Straße 3 in Schöneberg eine ein Meter lange Schlangenart, von Hausbewohnern entdeckt worden. Sie wurde gestern im Aqua als Diademenschlange — ein besonderes Exemplar — identifiziert, eine ungiftige Art, die in Nordafrika und Asien vorkommt. Vermutlich ist es einem Liebhaber entkommen.
