

Balky Witness
Jailed for Contempt

SEATTLE, Wash., May 13 (UPI)—Sylvia Jane Brown, a 20-year-old Barnard College student was sentenced to 14 years in jail for contempt Wednesday for refusing to answer questions from a Seattle federal grand jury.

She said the questions were political and accused the government of using the jury to oppress political activists. The government demanded among other things that she divulge every address and telephone number she had used during the past two years.

Page 5-19-77